

KM Runner Is Third

Captain James E. Amos placed third in the June 25 Fort Dix Annual Summer Classic 5 Kilometer Run. The run attracted a wide field of competitive runners from the local area and was conducted in 87 degree weather.

Amos, son of Jim and Elizabeth Amos of Kings Mountain, is the commander of B

Company, U.S. Army Reception Station at Ft. Dix where his responsibilities include the processing and training of 393 Initial Entry Trainees. CPT Amos,

28, is a member of the Ft. Dix Track Team, competes in races in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and New York; His competition includes the 2 mile, 5 KM 10

KM, 10 mile, and Half Marathon Distances.

In addition, Amos is an entertainer in the Fort Dix Music and Theatre Department.
