

John Wesley Winners...

Honor Council Held At First Wesleyan

First Wesleyan Church held Honor Council for its CYC Club on June 6. CYC is a Christian club for children ages two through sixth grade.

Children ages two through kindergarten are in the Joybell Group, first grade through third graders are in the Herald Group and fourth through sixth graders are in the Cadet Group.

Children in the Herald and Cadet programs earn awards during the year, and they are presented at Honor Council, which is held twice each year.

City Cracks Down On Late Utility Bills

"We're talking about a small percentage of people," he went on. "Eighty to 85 percent of the citizens pay as soon as they get the bill. Unfortunately, sometimes you're going to get some good people mixed in with the bad ones."

Referring to the Huffstetler situation, McDaniel added, "Those things happen and I can understand it. I wish I could segregate them but I can't."

CYC is held on Wednesday night from 6:45 until 8:15 and runs from the first Wednesday in September to the last Wednesday in May. CYC is a club that teaches children how to live and grow as Jesus did and takes Christianity off the blackboards and out of the books and puts it into every day life.

Four young people in the Herald and Cadet programs have earned every award possible in the program and as a result have earned the John Wesley Award, which is the highest award possible in the CYC program. They include Beth Smith, daughter of Leonard and Otie Smith of 99 Myers Street; Tina Roper, daughter of Mike and Shirley Roper of 503 Broad Street; Kevin Bolin, son of Charles and Elizabeth Bolin of 606 Landing Street; and Charlotte Taylor, daughter of Cnley and Debbie Taylor of 801 Southwood Drive. All are rising seventh graders at Central School.

Dwight H. Edwards is pastor at First Wesleyan and Debbie Taylor is CYC director.

KM Students On Dean's List

GREENSBORO—Susan E. Doty, a music education major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene A. Doty of 1311 Briarcliff Road, Shelby, is one of 307 undergraduates at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro who made all A's on courses completed during the spring semester which recently ended.

Altogether, five other Cleveland County students attained the dean's list during the spring semester. The other students are: Marla M. Cline, a nursing major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoyte Cline Jr. of Route 2, Box 3, Lawndale; Katherine A. Hawkins, a music education major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Hawkins, Route 4, Shelby; Connie M. Long, a music major, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max

E. Long of Route 1, Box 466-E, Grover; Jacqueline D. McSwain, an English major, Route 6, Box 115, Kings Mountain; and Theresa J. Rossi, a communication and theatre major with a concentration in broadcasting/cinema, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Rossi of 510 Franklin Ave., Shelby.

To make the dean's list at UNC-G, students must earn a grade point average of 3.5 or better. They must also be taking at least 12 semester hours of graded course work. Altogether, 1,109 UNC-G students out of a total undergraduate enrollment of over 7,300 attained the dean's list. UNC-G also has over 2,800 graduate students.
