Patrick Takes Course

Patrick Heavner, a rising seventh grader at Central Middle School, recently completed a course in computer fundamentals at Elon College in Elon College, N.C. The course was given as part of Elon's Developmental-Gifted Education Program designed to challenge and enrich gifted and talented students in all areas of study. The various courses including astronomy, oceanography, chemistry, mathematics, English and creative writing were taught by the instructors from Elon's faculty.

The 88 students from all over the Southeast also participated in planned group activities and optional courses including creative dramatics, instrumental music, three dimensional design and film watching.

At the completion of the session Patrick was presented an evaluation of his 18 hours in his course and a certificate.

While at Elon, Patrick, his mother Mrs. Dora Heavner, and his brother, Matt, were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Michael McKee and daughters, Amanda and Laura.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Heavner of Kings Mountain, Patrick is an honor student at Central Middle School.

Hunter Completes Training

Navy Airman Recruit Helen M. Hunter, daughter of Dessie H. Crosby of 16 Carolina Garden Apartments, Kings Mountain, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the eight-week training cycle, trainees studied general military subjects designed to prepare them for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

Included in their studies were seamanship, close order drill, Naval History, and first aid.

Scott Bidy In Training

Scott Bidy, son of Roy and Iris Bidy, will leave July 16 for the Naval Training Center in Orlando, Florida, to complete his basic training. He is the grandson of Mrs. Odis Barber and Mrs. Bessie Bidy.

In order to be a qualified substitute, a person must hold a high school diploma, participate in a substitute teacher workshop, and pass the Kings Mountain Competency Test. A person holding a valid North Carolina teacher's certificate is not required to take the local test.

Persons who plan to attend are asked to call 739-4589 and register by telephone.

EATING for LESS

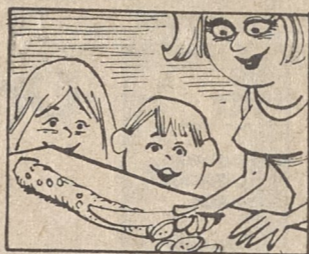

Elegant Dinner
For One or Two—$2.00

Elegant dining at home is one way to keep the budget in line.

If one of the ways you are trying to economize is by eating out less often, take heart. Here's an idea for a restaurant-style dinner for yourself and a guest at about $2.00 a serving. Swanson's Prepared Chicken in White Wine Sauce will make you think you are dining in one of your favorite bistros. While the chicken bakes, toss a lovely green salad with a blue cheese dressing and heat some French bread along with the chicken. Then splurge on a fancy bakery dessert or some good ice cream.

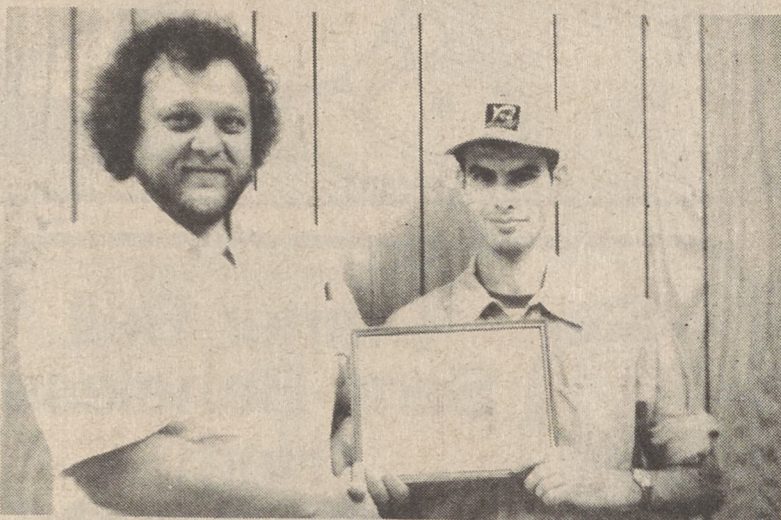

There's an elegant dinner for two that won't leave your budget feeling glum.

For a penny-wise sweet treat, combine a half-cup each honey, crunchy peanut butter and non-fat dry milk. Mix well and shape into a long narrow roll. Wrap in wax paper, chill and slice when firm into one-inch pieces.
