A Tribute In Memory Of My Beloved Husband Howard Thomas Leigh FOR YOU

*The things you loved I have not laid away
To molder in the darkness year by year,
The songs you sang, the books you read each day
Are all about me, intimate and dear.*

*I do not keep your chair a thing apart
Lonely and empty, desolate to view,
But if one comes a-weary, sick at heart,
I seat him there and comfort him for you.*

*I do not go apart in grief and weep,
For I have known your tenderness and care,
Such memories are Joy's that I may keep,
And so I pray for those whose lives are bare.*

*I may not daily go and scatter flowers
Where you are sleeping 'neath the sun and dew,
But if one lies in pain through weary hours,
I send the flowers there, Dear Heart, for you.*

*Life claims our best, you would not have me waste
A single day in selfish idle woe,
I fancy that I heard you bid me haste
Lest I should sadly falter as I go.*

*Perchance so much that now seems incomplete
Was left for me in my poor way to do,
And I shall love to tell you when we meet.
That I have done your errands, Dear, for you.*
