KMHS Class of 1972 Holds 10-Year Reunion

The Kings Mountain High School Class of 1972 held its tenth year reunion Saturday, July 31, 1982.

The festivities began with a family lunch picnic at Lake Crawford. Classmates were able to visit with old friends and their families.

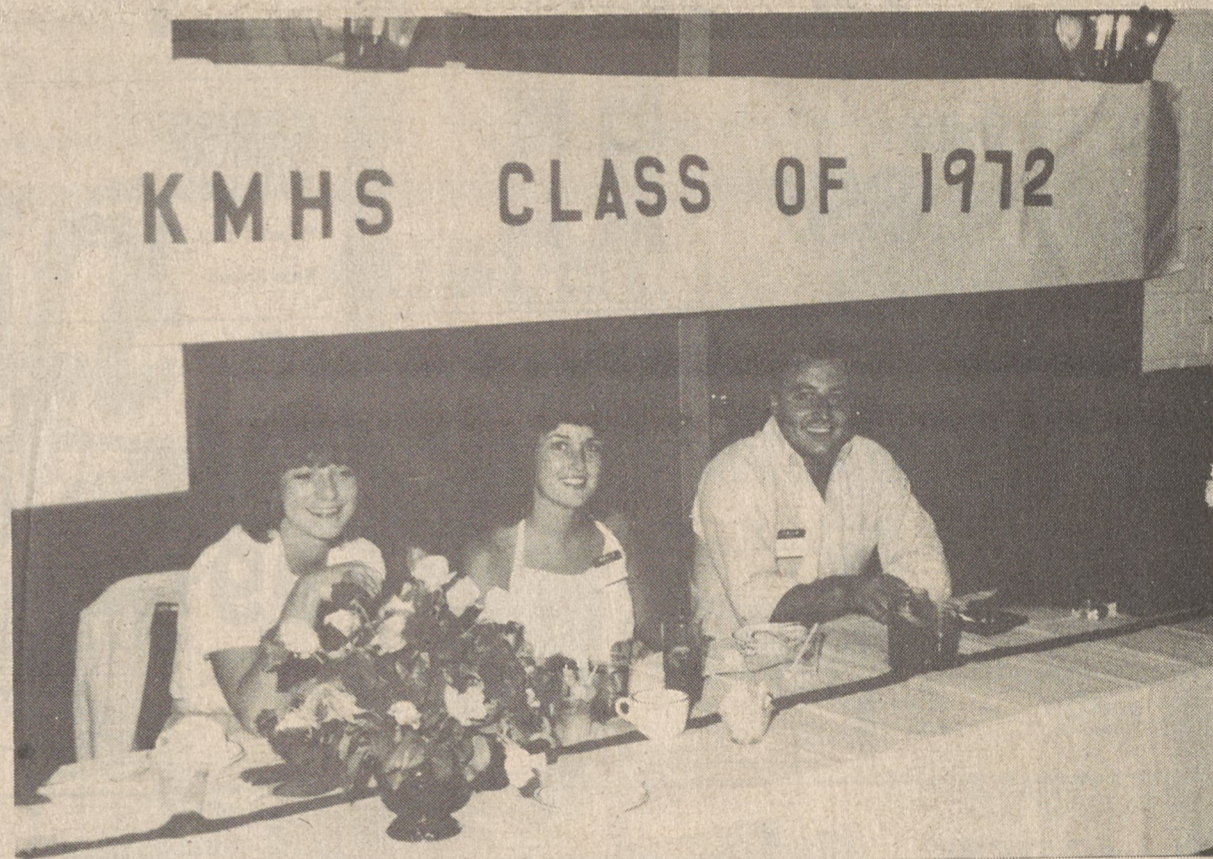

The reunion was held at the Kings Mountain Holiday Inn Saturday night beginning at 6:00 p.m. with the Happy Hour. Steven Plonk started off the dinner hour at 7:00 p.m. with a dinner prayer. The menu included a salad bar, roast beef, fried chicken, green beans, summer potatoes, roll, and peach cobbler. After the dinner hour David Bolin, one of the class's Vice Presidents, lead in words of welcome and a short period of retrospect for the occasion. Seated at the head table with David were other class officers and their spouses. The class officers present were: Kathryn Owens Blanton, Secretary and Diane Cornwell Russell, Treasurer; Ed Robbs, President; and Danny Rhodes, Vice President, were unable to attend. At the conclusion of the program the 133 attending classmates and friends were invited to visit, enjoy the music, and dance.

The success of the reunion was greatly due to the hard work of the Reunion Committee. Members of this committee were: Kathryn Owens Blanton, Wayne Blanton, David Bolin, Karla Smith Burnett, Tim Echols, Judy Ware Ford, Rocky Ford, Lynn Bridges Fulton, Debbie Porter Goforth, Pam Nicholson Goforth, Danny Hartsoe, Libby Dye Hawkins, Dale Russell, Diane Cornwell Russell, and Gail Huffstetler White.
