

But He's A Lousy 13-10

Fearless Picks Shelby, East Gaston, Mounties

By FEARLESS

Fearless had his best week of the season last week, if you can call 5-3 "best." The Great One misfired on three of eight. For the season, the crusty old crystal ball gazer is now 13-10, which sounds like a close football final.

I suppose the days of my "perfect cards" are gone like the wind and the old South.

The definition of an expert is an ordinary guy that's a long way from home.

"He's writing a book."
"Why doesn't he buy one. It's cheaper."

As the woman turned on the lights she screamed and ran to the phone. "There's a rat in my room," she shrieked.

"Send him down at once," ordered the clerk. "He must register."

The best way to break a leg is to throw a cigarette down a manhole and step on it.

There is nothing busier than the ant, yet it finds plenty of time to go to picnics.

I love to go down to Time's Square on New Year's Eve and "mangle" with the crowd."

Los Angeles has the greatest floating population. They shout praises of their weather from the housetops.

My uncle was the first to invent the can opener. However, it was a dismal failure. Nobody had invented the can yet.

Politics is a game whereby the people want to know what the candidates stand for and the candidates, how much the people will fall for.

Rip Van Winkle slept for 20 years. Of course, that was the day before television sets and soap operas, sports events and Home Box Office.

Along about November there starts a widespread rumor that Christmas is coming.

"What do you do when you feel like exercising?"

"I lie down until I get over it."

When I was a sentry in service, I heard the noise, fired twice, then shouted, "Who went there?"

And finally, folks, don't ever tell a bald man a hair-raising story.

Well, we're going to try and see what we can do about getting our average a little higher this week.

East Gaston seeks to rebound from a 21-14 setback at the hands of Kings Mountain, while South Point hopes to continue its winning ways after scoring a 33-22 victory over North Gaston. Kings Mountain hopes to keep its running game strong as it invades East Rutherford.

The Warriors host North Gaston this week. I'm looking for East Gaston to bounce back and capture a 26-14 win over the Wildcats.

South Point and Shelby have had some great duals over the years. Shelby has won its last two home games over South Point, 16-14 and 3-0. That 3-0 game incidentally, was one of the worst football games I ever covered. Prediction is for a 21-20 Shelby win.

Kings Mountain's running game (391 yards rushing against East Gaston, really impressed me last week. Curtis Pressley and Tracy Johnson were in the same backfield and East Gaston just couldn't stop them.

Kings Mountain plays at East Rutherford this week. The Cavaliers are a tough team, but the prediction is for a 20-13 Mountaineer win.

And here's how I see the other games this week: Ashbrook 34, South Caldwell 6; Hickory 20, Hunter Huss 13; Bessemer City 26, Fred T. Foard 20; Maiden 18, Cherryville 14; Lincolnton 26, Alexander-Central 7; Mooresville 26, East Lincoln 8; Crest 26, Chase 14; and Burns 20, R-S Central 13.

The McDonald's® Quality Story: Second in a Series.

BEEF.

100% PURE DOMESTIC BEEF.

Do you know what makes McDonald's® hamburgers so delicious? Quality ingredients. Take our beef. It's the hero of the McDonald's hamburger. We use only 100% pure domestic beef. Period. And we choose only selected cuts like sirloin, chuck and round to make our lean and tasty ground beef. As a matter of fact, the beef in a McDonald's hamburger is leaner than most people generally buy at their local supermarket!

No fillers. No additives. Nothing artificial. Never.

WHAT WE DON'T USE.

Now, just a brief word about what we don't use: No imported beef.

MORE THAN GOOD BEEF.

Of course, the great taste of a Mc-

Donald's hamburger doesn't come from the beef alone. All our buns are made from enriched wheat flour, baked fresh in the Carolinas. In our cheeseburgers and Big Macs® we use our own blend of mild, melted process American Cheese (please don't confuse it with "cheese food"). And we put two slices on our Quarter Pounder with Cheese®! And the special sauce on your Big Mac comes from a secret blend of herbs, spices and real mayonnaise.

So what are you waiting for? Clip out the coupon below and taste the delicious quality of our beef for yourself. McDonald's hamburgers. They're so good because we use only quality ingredients.

TASTE McDONALD'S® QUALITY FOR YOURSELF.

Until you taste McDonald's quality for yourself, our story is incomplete. So we're inviting you to try our beef at a special value. Just present this coupon when you buy any large sandwich, and enjoy a second one free. On this visit, or your next. So bring a friend or come alone and taste the quality of our beef.
