

Birthdays

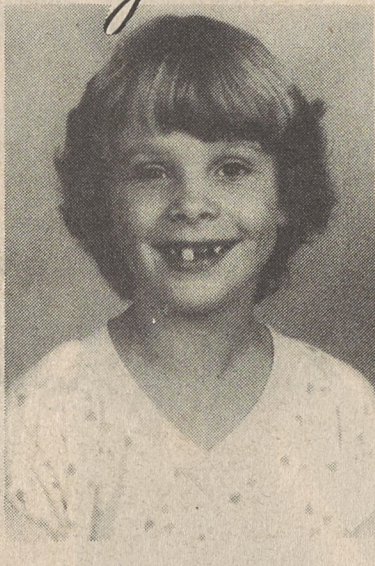

BRIDGET BARRETT

Bridget Is One

Bridget Leigh Barrett celebrated her first birthday October 3. A party was held at her home where family and friends enjoyed a "Strawberry Shortcake" cake and other refreshments.

Bridget is the daughter of Steve and Freda Barrett of Kings Mountain and the granddaughter of Mrs. Biddie Barrett and the late Charles V. Barrett, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Conner, all of Kings Mountain.

MICHELLE KAYLOR

Michelle Is Eight

Michelle Kaylor, daughter of Leland and Sheryl Meacham, celebrated her eighth birthday October 3.

Michelle and her guests enjoyed an E.T. cake and other party refreshments.

She is the granddaughter of Walt and Yvonne Brodnax and Mot and Tom Meacham, all of Kings Mountain, and Ned and La Faye Smith of Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Bazaar Is Scheduled

A big Country Treasures bazaar will be held Saturday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. at 1013 Dornoch Road, Heatherloch, in Gastonia.

Items for sale include flying geese, decoys, toys, wooden watermelons, pillows, sleighs, painted furniture, lampshades, welcome signs, shore birds, window birds, baskets and more.

Marchers To Arrive

The arrival of the Overmountain Marchers as they follow for the eighth successive year the 219 miles of the Overmountain Victory Trail will be the highlight of the 202nd Anniversary Celebration Program scheduled Thursday, October 7 at Kings Mountain National Military Park.

The colorful marchers, many dressed in clothing and bearing weapons similar to that of the pioneer frontiersman who defeated a major British force during the Battle of Kings Mountain 202 years ago, will arrive at 3:00 p.m. at the National Military Park that today protects the historic Revolutionary War Battlefield.

The ceremonies will be keyed by guest speaker General Carl D. Wallace, Adjutant General, Tennessee Army National Guard.

The Four-state historic route followed by the frontiersman of 1780 as they pursued and defeated their British foes was recognized two years ago as a National Historic Trail and planning to preserve and mark original remaining segments of the trail continues.

Members of the Overmountain Victory Trail Association will be on hand to participate in the program which is open to the public and will be held at the park visitor center.

OPEN HOUSE

The faculty and staff of Kings Mountain Junior High School will host an open house October 14 at 7 p.m. Students and their parents are invited.

Fall Trip Planned

Kings Mountain citizens will have a chance to see the fall colors of Western North Carolina on October 20, when the Kings Mountain Senior Center will sponsor a bus trip to Flat Rock and Hendersonville.

The fare will be $7 per person, and must be paid by October 8. It may be paid at the Senior Center.

Each individual will be responsible for his lunch. The bus will be stopping at a cafeteria, but persons may bring a picnic lunch if they prefer.

The bus will leave the Depot at 8:30 a.m. and arrive back that evening.

Fifteen reservations are available. For more information, go by the Depot Center or call 739-4511 between 8:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m.
