Broyhill Wins Award

Rep. James T. Broyhill has earned the "Guardian of Small Business" Award—and an endorsement for re-election—from the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) for his outstanding voting record on small-business issues.

The Nation's largest small-business group presented Broyhill with the award because he voted with a majority of NFIB members 86 percent of the time.

On announcing the award, NFIB President Wilson S. Johnson said, "The voting record of Rep. Broyhill this Congress demonstrates that he is responsive to the needs of this state, because small businesses create the majority of new jobs and if left to flourish, will be a major factor in restoring economic growth."

House members were rated on 22 recorded votes during this session of Congress. Issues ranged from cutting the budget to raising unemployment taxes and forcing the government to pay its bills on time. Those members of Congress who did not have recorded votes on at least 70 percent of the issues included in the ratings were not eligible for the award.

County Heritage Book Off Press

The book, "Heritage of Cleveland County" that the Cleveland County Historical Association/Museum has been compiling for the last year and a half is finally ready for delivery. The books were delivered Friday at the museum by Dedmon Trucking, a local trucking firm that donated their services to help the museum.

The heritage book is one of the most ambitious books written on county history. It is also special because everyone that wanted to could submit a history on their family, church, business and/or organization. The book contains over 1000 Cleveland County family histories and many church and business histories, besides many pages of pictorial tributes to families. Genealogists will appreciate the book and it will prove to be a primary tool in research, not just because of the family histories, but because it is fully indexed.

The history book will make an excellent gift that could become a family heirloom as it is made of archival paper that will last 300 years or more.

Hundreds of volunteers from Gover to Casar worked long hours spreading the word on the book and then a special committee, headed by Rosalynd Gilliatt, edited the book several times and indexed it. The articles were not changed and nothing vital was taken out of the stories submitted by Cleveland County people on their history.

People who pre-ordered the book can pick it up at the Cleveland County Historical Museum during business hours, which are 9 to 4 weekdays and 2 to 5 Sunday. New purchases can also be made at the museum during these hours. The book sells for $35 plus $1.40 tax. Arrangements can be made for mailing the books at $2.75 per book. For further information call the museum at 482-8186.
