Open Gate Club Meets

The Open Gate Garden Club met October 13 in the hostess room of First Federal Savings and Loan.

Town And Country Garden Club Meets

Mrs. Mabel Dixon entertained members of the Town and Country Garden Club on Thursday evening at her home on Hillside Drive. Upon arriving, guests were served dessert consisting of orange fruit cake, cheese straws, and Russian tea. Arrangements of homegrown chrysanthemums in yellow and bronze were used for decorations in the foyer and living room Joyce Lee, daughter of the hostess, assisted in serving Arnette, Mrs. J.H. Arthur, and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Sr. They told of successful methods of rooting plants which they learned from their mothers and their grandmothers.

During the business session, plans were made for participation in the Fall Festival, sponsored by the Kings Mountain Woman's Club on Wednesday, October 20.

Mrs. Lawrence Logan, program chairman, presented "Getting Down to the Roots", a discussion of plant propagation by rooting. Members taking part in the discussion were Mrs. Jack

Mrs. George Moss, president, and Mrs. Harold Crawford, Sr., vice-president, were appointed to attend the annual meeting of District Number Three Garden Clubs in Gastonia.

Miss Annie Roberts was hostess. The 13 members present were served coffee and cake.

O.C. Kiser, superintendent of the Kings Mountain Water System, gave a program on water conservation.

Mrs. Tom Trott, president, presided over the business meeting.

Mrs. Eugene Roberts and Mrs. Grace Talbert were asked to attend the District III Garden Clubs meeting October 20 at Gaston Country Club.

Timely tips were given by Mrs. Eugene Roberts and Mrs. Jim Dickey. Mrs. Roberts' arrangement received 95 points. The subject was "Still Waters", using foilage and flowers.

Ten members brought horticulture, plants or flowers.

New Club Is Forming

An Altusa Club—an international service organization for professional women—is being organized in Cleveland County as a project of the Gastonia Altusa Club.

The new club meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 11:30 a.m. at the Western Steer Family Steak House in Shelby.

To be a member, one must hold a managerial position in business, own a business, or have a professional title.

Any women interested in finding out more about the club should contact Susan Doggett at the Development Evaluation Center in Shelby (482-4416) or Teresa Melton at the Kings Mountain Aging Center (739-4511).

Jesus Is Coming Soon

God's mercy has always prevailed for man. In Gen. 6:5-8, all the earth was evil continually. God's wrath waxed hot, and He was going to destroy the earth. He found a man, Noah, who found favor in His Eyes; and, His mercy prevailed.

Again in Ex. 32:19-33, God's wrath was against Israel. God was going to destroy His chosen people, but Moses interceded. God's mercy prevailed and the people were spared.

Numbers 16 and 17 tells of Korah and many princes of Israel that rose up against Moses. God's wrath came upon them. The ground opened and swallowed them all. Because of this, the Israelites murmured against Moses and Aaron. God's wrath waxed hot. Fourteen thousand and seven hundred people were killed by a plague. Aaron took incense and fire from the altar, ran and stood between the people and the plague was stayed. God's mercy prevailed.

We could examine many Scriptures and see the mercy of God. However, there is coming a time when God's mercy will not prevail. In Rev. 8, God hears all the prayers of the saints and then pour's out His wrath without a mixture of mercy. It is going to be a terrible time. His mercy will not prevail for mankind during this tribulation period. Man will suffer greatly for his rejection of God.

1 Chron. 16:34 declares, "His mercy endureth for ever". Revelation chapter 8 appears to contradict 1 Chron. 16:34. Ps. 103:17 clears up the contradiction, "He shows everlasting mercy unto the righteous". If you are saved, 'Praise the Lord'. If you are not saved, GET SAVED, so His mercy will be extended unto you. God is a God of love. He has never desired to punish man. His Word declares, "He is not willing that any man should perish, but that every man call upon Him for mercy and salvation". He is coming again, and the day of His wrath is for sure. Don't delay your acceptance of Him until it is too late. God loves you, He really does.
