

Police Report Larcenies

City police investigated a number of larcenies and other acts of vandalism during the past week.

Reports included:

Clifford L. Gangon of 1401 Marimont, reported that two license plates, valued at $32, were stolen off his vehicles.

Francis Carroll Ellis of Route 1, Grover, reported the theft of $400 worth of hubcaps off her car while it was parked at Kings Mountain High School.

Jeffrey Dorsey of 612 Temple Street reported that eggs were thrown on a van and his house.

Nita J. Humphries of 307 East King Street reported the theft of a $60 battery.

George Hatch of 311 West Mountain Street reported the larceny of a 24-foot aluminum ladder.

William McClary of 1204 Northwoods reported that someone entered his home and stole a $950 floor sander.

Christopher Lynn Howe of 18 First Street reported the theft of two rims and tires valued at $400.

FIRE

Kings Mountain firemen extinguished a fire at 8:25 p.m. Tuesday at Parkdale Mills. A wander caught fire, causing extensive damage.

TUESDAY MORNING WRECK - A number of area residents keep a close eye on this 18-wheeler which cut too short while making a turn onto Center Street Tuesday and tipped over on its side. The truck, carrying 12 junked cars, struck city utility lines and put them in a swinging motion. Although there were some anxious moments, the lines did not break and power was not lost.

Wrecks Reported

Kings Mountain police investigated three wrecks during the past week.

A 1970 Ford owned by Tracey Baumgardner of Route 5, Waco Road was struck by a hit-and-run driver at 6:45 a.m. Sunday at The Waffle House. Damage to Miss Baumgardner's car was $300.

A 1980 Buick driven by

Agnes Martin Willis of 808 Canterbury Road struck a utility pole at Carquest Auto Parts at 12:08 a.m. Monday. The driver reportedly fell asleep. Damage to the car was $2,000 and damage to the pole was $100.

A transfer truck driven by

Boger Hulon Carriker of Route 1, Concord, made a right turn off York Road onto King Street Monday at 11:15 a.m. and struck a car driven by Peter Lee Putnam of 600 Lee Street. There was no damage to the truck and $600 damage to Putnam's 1982 Toyota.

Have A Happy, Safe Halloween

Children should not go to houses where the porch light is not on. An unlit front porch signals that the people inside do not wish to take part in Halloween Activities.

Other suggestions issued by the Kings Mountain Police Department include:

—If you must go out at night, make certain that you wear a costume that is light in color which makes it easier for you to be seen.

Rates Are Up Again

Citizens may sign petitions at the Governmental Services Facilities Center (City Hall, Police Department, Hightower's Clothing Outlet on York Road, Ellison's Grocery at 716 Cleveland Avenue, Mack's Grocery at 900 North Piedmont and One Hour Martinizing at 507 East King Street.

In other matters Monday, the board:

*Held a public hearing to consider a proposed amendment to the Community Development Block Grant program. Clayvon Kelly requested that the city supply him a copy of the eligible activities that CDBG money can be spent on. Another public hearing will be held on November 8.

*Approved a bid of $10,113.05 from Wade Ford for a utility truck for the Gas Department. The only other bid was $10,737 from Testa Chevrolet.

*Approved a request from the Codes Department that a fee of $15 be required from anyone filing an application for a variance to the Zoning Ordinance. Mayor Moss said the fee would be to recover the costs of advertising which is required before a rezoning hearing can be held.

Bowen Sweeps

Wimp Bowen's team swept four games from Albert Brackett and Gerald Hipp's team defeated John Dilling three games to one in Tuesday night Mixed Bowling League action at the Dilling Heating Lanes.

R.W. Hullender scored a 113 game and 325 set to lead Bowen's team to victory. Albert Brackett led his crew with a 104 game and 301 set.

Gerald Hipp rolled a 134 line and 317 set to lead his team's win over Dilling. Sara Cash had a 111 line and John Dilling added a 314 set for the losers.

REVIVAL
Revival services will be held October 31-November 4 at Second Baptist Church. Rev. Ralph Lail will be the speaker. Prayer rooms will be open at 7 p.m. each evening and services will begin at 7:30.
