

Symphony To Perform At Barnes Auditorium

From Page 7-A

Jackson Parkhurst, North Carolina Symphony assistant conductor and director of education since 1980, coordinates all North Carolina Symphony children's concerts, supervises the Bryan Young Artist Competition held each January and coordinates all symphony ensemble programs and appearances.

Parkhurst founded the Brevard (N.C.) Chamber Orchestra five years ago and was music director of the Lexington Park String Ensemble and director of choral music at UNC-Asheville during 1979-80. He was one of 15 conductors selected from over 100 applicants to participate in the American Symphony Orchestra League's Institute of Orchestral Studies at the Shenandoah Music Festival in 1975.

In addition to conducting orchestral music, Parkhurst is also an accomplished conductor of opera theatres. He was assistant conductor of Opera theatres at Duke University from 1966-67, the University of North Carolina from 1968-69, and the Manhattan School of Music from 1973-74.

Guest conductor of the Bronx Opera Company in New York City from 1974-75, Parkhurst was also a participant in Boris Goldovsky's Opera Institute in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts, in 1976.

During the summers of 1981 and 1982 Parkhurst conducted the Brevard Music Center's Transylvania Orchestra and Repertory Training Orchestra. He was also coordinator of Educational Programs and in charge of the Repertory Training Program.

Patriots Host Chase In Final Game Today

Kings Mountain Junior High's footballers hope to end their season on a winning note Thursday at 4 p.m. when they host Chase at Gamble Stadium.

The Patriots, 1-5-1, are coming off a 14-0 loss last week to Shelby. The Pats managed only 90 yards rushing.

Otis Brooks had a good day for the Pats, rushing for 60 yards and catching four passes for 37 yards. Roderick Boyce hit seven of 18 passes for 75 yards.

Coach David Heffner cited Calvin Stephens, Donald Mauney, Lenny Rayford, Keith McPherson, Robert Huggins, Benji Cochran, Vince Sullens, Kevin Sabucco, Paul Terry and Randy Garner for their defensive play.

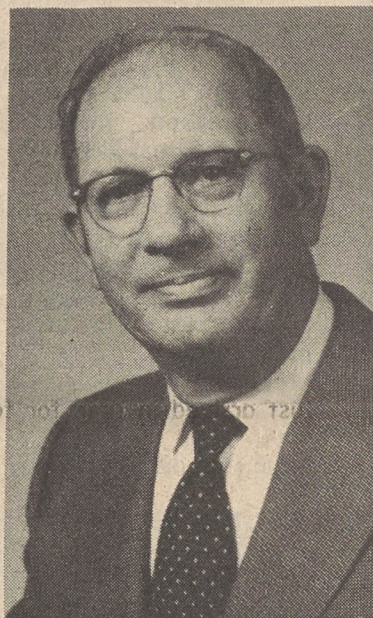

Revival Scheduled At First Wesleyan

Revival services will be held November 1-7 at 7 p.m. each evening at First Wesleyan Church.

Evangelist will be the Rev. Yancey H. Carter of Long Beach, N.C. Rev. Carter is a retired Wesleyan pastor, now serving as evangelist to the denomination. He pastored in Kings Mountain several years ago at East Gold Street Wesleyan Church.

Special singing will be featured during each service and a nursery will be provided.

First Wesleyan is located in the 500 block of North Piedmont Avenue. The pastor, Rev. Dwight H. Edwards, and the congregation invite the public to attend.

HARRILL JONES SCHOOL BOARD NOV. 2

THE CRAMERTON SCHOOL PUZZLE

In 1979 the parents and taxpayers in Cramerton supported the school bonds. Why? Because $300,000 in bond money was promised to fix up and enlarge Cramerton Jr. High. In 1981 the school staff was saying let's close it. Confused? I am.

I want to take another look. Let's close it or fix it up and use it fully.
