TRICK OR TREAT? - Eighteen month old Christopher Phoenix and other children who visited Dr. Charles Blair's dentist office Thursday may have thought they were being tricked into something when all these suspicious looking characters came around. But before their visit was over, they were treated to some Halloween goodies. Pictured left to right with Christopher are Vickie Gordon, his mother Teri Phoenix, Lynn Sexton, Janet Ware, Dr. Blair and Ann Grigg.

YOU'RE UNDER ARREST - Sgt. Bob Hayes of the Kings Mountain Police Department puts the cuffs on a grave digger which was interfering with the traffic flow on York Road Thursday. Actually, it was James Huntsinger, owner of the Little Moo, having a little fun with passersby and encouraging them to come in and try his Halloween specials.

Carlton To Speak At Fete

Everette "Shu" Carlton, former Kings Mountain High football coach, will be the guest speaker at the annual Booster's Club Football Banquet November 23 at 7:30 p.m. at the KMHS cafeteria.

The banquet will honor all members of the KMHS football team and cheerleaders. Tickets are on sale for $5 each at Home Federal Savings and Loan, First Federal Savings and Loan and from Booster Club members.

Carlton is now athletic coordinator for the Gaston County School System.

While at KMHS, he coached the Mountaineers to Southwestern 3-A Conference titles in 1955 and 1956 and coached in a number of all-star games, including the Shrine Bowl.

He later coached at Ashley and Ashbrook High in Gastonia, leading the Green Wave to a number of Southwestern 4-A Conference championships.

He was head coach of the North Carolina Shrine Bowl team in 1964.

Pats Win Final Game

Kings Mountain Junior High's football team closed out its season Thursday at Gamble Stadium with an 8-0 victory over Chase.

The Patriots finished with a 2-4-1 record.

Lenny Rayford, who had 135 yards rushing, scored the only touchdown of the game on a two-yard run on the last play of the first quarter. The Patriots closed out the scoring with a safety in the fourth period.

Roderick Boyce hit on four of six passes for 54 yards, all of the completions going to Otis Brooks. Boyce also had 24 yards rushing for the Pats and Monty Deaton added 17.

Symphony To Perform At KMHS

The North Carolina Symphony Orchestra will perform Wed., Nov. 10 at 8 p.m. at B.N. Barnes Auditorium.

Tickets are $6 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and students and $2 for children. They will be sold at the door.

In addition to the public performance Wednesday night, the Symphony will perform during the day for elementary students from the Kings Mountain District Schools.

Take A Closer Look At One Solution To The Investment Puzzle. Before Time Runs Out.

At First Union, investments come in all shapes and sizes—like our tax-exempt, one-year All-Savers Certificate of Deposit. It allows you a cumulative exclusion of up to $2,000 interest if you're filing a joint Federal income tax return and up to $1,000 on an individual return. And all it takes to purchase your All-Savers CD is a minimum deposit of $500. But you only have a limited time to take advantage of the All-Savers tax-exempt benefit. Because these CDs will not be available after December 31, 1982.

First Union also offers a range of other investment options, and all of our depositors are insured up to $100,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. So whether your goals are long-range or short-term, take a closer look at First Union. We'll help you put together a successful investment plan—piece by piece.
