

It's Been A Fun Year Fearless Swan Song; Picks Locals To Win

By FEARLESS

Fearless closes out his annual fall football frolics this week with a pretty respectable record after nine of the 10 football Fridays of 61-16 following a mark of 8-3 last week.

And we'll close out with a few more frolics.

"I'm worried about my son's health."

"What's he got?"

"A motorcycle."

A good beginning and a good ending make a good speech if they come close together.

I have a rug that looks so terrible that I usually just sweep it under the dirt.

The landlord was laying down the law to the town drunk.

"I'll give you two days to pay the rent," warned the property owner.

"Shay, thatsh schwel," answered the drunk. "I'll take the Fourth of July and Christmas."

All teeth will remain white if they are properly cared for. For instance, I never drink hot drinks, and always brush my teeth morning and night and avoid all acids. That is all I do, barring the fact that I put them in a glass of soft water each and every night.

I said to Buzz Merritt the other day, "I think I have a cold or something in my head."

"It must be a cold," said Buzz.

"I can see this watch at night."

"Oh, a radium dial?"

"No. A flashlight goes with it."

The mosquito was discovered by the man who was discovered by the mosquito.

The diamond is the hardest mineral in the world...to get.

"That perfume costs $30 an ounce. Here, smell it."

"Give me fifty cents' worth."

"Lady, you just had fifty cents' worth."

On the local scene Friday night, South Point and East

Gaston close out their seasons.

South Point entertains Chase, while East Gaston hosts Burns.

Both the Raiders and the Warriors will close on winning notes...sez Fearless.

I look for South Point to down the Trojans, 13-6, and for East Gaston to bump off Burns, 26-7.

Some traditional battles take place Friday, such as Ashbrook vs. Hunter Huss, Kings Mountain vs. Shelby, and Clover vs. York.

Ashbrook is rolling along with an unbeaten season. I look for them to stay unbeaten and make it a 10-0 year with a 20-7 win over the Huskies.

Kings Mountain, in the two games I covered and saw them play, looked like champions in beating East Gaston and South Point. Coach Dan Brooks might start asking me to cover all of his team's games if I'm "a good luck charm."

I'll be covering South Point and Chase Friday for our General Publishing Company newspapers, but I'm still going to pick the Mountaineers in a 14-13 thriller over the Golden Lions.

York and Clover always play "dillies." Good games. I look for York to prevail, 20-14.

And here's how I see the other games: Crest 26, R-S Central 7; Bessemer City 32, Bunker Hill 12; West Lincoln 7, Cherryville 6; Lincolnton 28, South Iredell 7; Statesville 26, East Lincoln 6; and East Rutherford 14, North Gaston 7.

They'll put the football uniforms in mothballs next week for every team I've mentioned except Ashbrook. They'll put me in mothballs next week too...until the fall of 1983.

Have a good year. I've enjoyed it a lot this season.

Layel Outguesses 15 To Win Grid Contest

Fifteen contestants predicted 17 of 20 winners in last week's Herald football contest.

Carl A. Layel of 109 South Deal Street, Kings Mountain, came within one point of the tie-breaker and claimed the $75 prize.

Layel predicted that 56 points would be scored in the North Carolina-Maryland game, which was won by Maryland 31-24.

Others missing just three games, but losing out on the tie-breaker, were Rick Wallace of 5400 Margrace Road, Kings Mountain; Andrew Loftin of 501 Woodland Drive, Kings Mountain; Steve Goforth of Route 2, Box 402, Kings Mountain; Burman L. Bryant of 1204 Scenic Drive, Shelby; Jack K. Bennett of 500 Woodland Drive, Kings Mountain; Doug Butler of Route 3, Box 714, Shelby; Kim Bullock of 524 Cleveland Avenue, Kings Mountain; Sandra Mullinax of Route 4, Box 726, Kings Mountain; Dean Bowen of Route 1, Grover; Frankie Carpenter of Route 5, Box 644, Kings Mountain; Horace Walker of 619 Meadowbrook Road, Kings Mountain; Jessie Armstrong of 421 Eat Pennsylvania Avenue, Bessemer City; Ralph Lowery of 300 1/2 South Oriental Avenue, Kings Mountain; and Darrell Ladd of Route 1, Box 341-A, Kings Mountain.

The UNC-Maryland game gave the most trouble. Walker was the only one of the 15 to predict a Maryland victory.

Layel missed Duke's win over Georgia Tech, Florida State's win over Miami and the Maryland win over UNC. Wallace missed UNC-Maryland, Chase over Burns and Arizona State over Southern Cal and picked 58 points on the tie-breaker. Loftin missed Chase over Burns, Florida State over Miami and Maryland over UNC and picked 49 points on the tiebreaker. Goforth missed the same three games and picked 48 points. Bryant missed Hunter Huss over South Caldwell, Maryland over UNC and Arizona State over Southern Cal and picked 46 points. Bennett missed the same three games and picked 45 points. Butler missed Virginia over VMI, Maryland over UNC and Arizona State over Southern Cal and picked 42 points. Bullock missed Chase over Burns, Huss over South Caldwell and Maryland over UNC and picked 40 points. Mullinax missed Virginia over VMI, Maryland over UNC and Arizona State over USC and picked 38 points. Bowen missed Huss over South Caldwell, Duke over Georgia Tech and Maryland over UNC and picked 35 points. Carpenter missed Huss over South Caldwell, FSU over Miami and Maryland over UNC and picked 35 points. Walker missed Huss over South Caldwell, Florida over Auburn and Arizona State over USC and picked 28. Armstrong missed Florida over Auburn, FSU over Miami and Maryland over UNC and picked 24. Lowery missed FSU over Miami, Maryland over UNC and Arizona State over USC and picked 20.

Ladd missed VMI over Virginia, FSU over Miami and Maryland over UNC and predicted 17 points on the tie-breaker.

The final contest is inside today's Herald. Contestants are urged to read over the rules carefully and get your entries by 5 p.m. Friday. All entries received after 5 p.m. will be disqualified. Mail your entry to Football Contest, P.O. Box 752, Kings Mountain, N.C. 28086, or bring it by our office.
