Operation Santa Claus Underway In County

The Mental Health Center of Cleveland County is again conducting its annual Operation Santa Claus drive which collects gifts for Cleveland County residents in five institutions.

Collection boxes to deposit new gift items or gift wrapping paper and ribbons will be located at First Union National Bank, 125 South Battleground Avenue, and the Kings Mountain School Superintendent's Office, 500 West Parker Street. Do not wrap gifts.

Anyone needing any more information should call Hallie Blanton at 739-6851 or 739-5156.

Anyone wanting to give a monetary donation should make their checks payable to the Mental Health Center and mail them to Miss Lynn Harand, 222 Crawford Street, Shelby, N.C. 28150.

The deadline for donations of items is December 3.

Concert Set Saturday At Huss High School

The first concert of the 1982-83 season of the Gastonia Community Concert Association is scheduled for Sat., Nov. 13 at 8 p.m. in the Hunter Huss High School auditorium.

The highly-acclaimed California Boys Choir, which was founded in 1969, will be presented in a two-part program. The first half will be a concert-style program of choral music.

After intermission, the singers appear in Broadway musical-style settings with popular show tunes and standards.

Director of the choir is Douglas Neslund, who has studied at Loma Linda University, the University of Southern California and the Akademie Der Musik in Vienna.

Admittance to the concert is by membership only.

Women To Meet

The Gastonia District officers of the United Methodist Women will sponsor a training workshop Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Covenant United Methodist Church in Gastonia. The theme will be "Do All to the Glory of God."

All United Methodist Women of Cleveland, Gaston and Lincoln counties are invited. It is especially important for all officers to attend.

Bazaar Set

The women of Bethany Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, Route 3, Highway 161, Clover, S.C., are sponsoring a fall bazaar Sat., Nov. 20, from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. in the church fellowship hall.

Featured items include crafts, baked goods and canned goods for the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons.

BASKETBALL MEETING

An Industrial League Basketball organizational meeting will be held November 15 at 6 p.m. at the Kings Mountain Community Center athletic director's office. Plans to form an eight-team league will be discussed. All interested coaches and sponsors should attend. For more information call George Adams at 739-9631.

REGISTRATION

Registration for all boys and girls interested in playing basketball in the 8, 9 and 10-year-old league will be held November 17, 18 and 19 from 4 p.m. until 9 p.m. at the Kings Mountain Community Center. There will be a $5 registration fee unless players have participated in the Optimist football program or City Youth Soccer League. Registration will be in the athletic director's office.

REGISTRATION

Registration for all boys and girls interested in playing in the 11 and 12-year-old youth basketball league will be held November 22, 23 and 24 from 4 p.m. until 9 p.m. in the athletic director's office at the Kings Mountain Community Center.
