

Baliles Marriage Vows Said

white and royal blue flowers to bring out the colors of the wedding, and set in pink baby's breath. The maid of honor carried a smaller bouquet of silk flowers identical to the brides, and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of silk flowers consisting of cranberry wine and rosewood pink, set in baby's breath.

Each window of the church was decorated with one brass candle and pink and white poinsettias on each side. Three large seven-branch candelabras were flanked by arrangements of cranberry wine roses, rosewood pink roses, white carnations and small royal blue flowers.

Family pews were marked with bows of white ribbons.

Terry Melton and Jan Baliles attended the guest register.

Following the wedding, the bride's mother hosted a reception in the fellowship hall of Second Baptist Church.

Following their honeymoon, the newlyweds will reside in Charleston, S.C.

Parties Honor Couple

Two parties last week honored Laura Carpenter and Warren Bingham, who will be married January 1 at Central United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hamrick Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dilling entertained Saturday at a lovely dinner party at the Hamrick home.

Twenty guests were invited from Charlotte, Kings Mountain and Raleigh.

The Hamrick home was decorated with the Christmas holiday theme.

Mrs. Betty Putnam and Miss Paulette Putnam entertained at a lovely tea Sunday afternoon.

Fifty guests from Charlotte, Gastonia, Shelby, Raleigh and Kings Mountain attended from 2 until 4 p.m.
