

Banquet Set

Kings Mountain Jaycees will honor citizens for outstanding achievement during 1982 at its annual Distinguished Service Awards Banquet Mon. Jan. 10 at 7 p.m. at the Holiday Inn.

Presentation of the coveted "Young Man of the Year" award will highlight the awards presentation. Nominations for the "Young Man of the Year" are being accepted from the public. The award honors a young man under the age of 35 for outstanding community, civic, and personal achievement. Applications for this award can be obtained from Warlick and Hamrick Insurance or at Cornwell Drug.

Presentations of Outstanding Service Awards will also be made to Kings Mountain Outstanding Young Educator, Outstanding Young Fireman, Outstanding Young Rescuer, Boss of the Year, Outstanding Young Teenagers, and Outstanding Former Jaycee.

Five Kings Mountain educators are vying for the title of "Outstanding Young Educator". In the running for the award are Claudia Stroup, fifth grade teacher at East Elementary School; Susan Denton, kindergarten teacher at North Elementary School; Ann Rudisill, third grade teacher at West Elementary School; Nancy Isenhour, Language Arts teacher at Central School; and Joel Rountree, Social Studies teacher at Kings Mountain High School. Nominees for Outstanding Young Educator are made by fellow teachers and the winner in this local competition will represent the Kings Mountain system in State competition for North Carolina Outstanding Young Educator. Last years local winner, Kay Jolly received honorable mention in the state competition.

Nominated to receive the award as Outstanding Young Firefighter are Eddie Leftwich, John Wright and Patrick Witherspoon.

Nominated to receive the award as Outstanding Young Rescuer are Richard Byers, Russell Falls, Jeffrey Cloninger and James Self.

The Kings Mountain Jaycees will introduce a new category to the wards this year to honor outstanding community and school achievements by teenagers. Two awards will be given to the Outstanding Teenager (age 15-19) and Outstanding Young Teenager (age 12-15). Nominees are selected by principals and teachers. The nominees for Outstanding Young Teenager are Heather Bradshaw and Kevin Bolin. The nominees for Outstanding Teenager are Donna Wright and David Peeler.

Firemen Get Plato's Goat

The Kings Mountain Fire Department answered a call at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday on Cleveland Avenue for what could have been Santa Claus's reindeer.

But, it turned out to be a herd of goats belonging to Plato Heavner, a retired fireman who is recovering from a heart attack.

The firemen rounded up the goats and put them back in the pasture to graze for the night.

The roundup was led by the Duke, Chief Gene Tignor.

GOSPEL SINGING

The True Gospel Holiness Church of Kings Mountain is having a singing Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Featured group will be the Trinity Gospel Singers. Rev. Jerry Morrow, pastor, invites the public to attend.

Citizens Complain To Board

Eddie Mason, a resident of 217 Catherine Street, said that since the work was done, residents of Second Street have experienced water drainage problems because of the steep hill on Catherine. He also said the city work crews had made an asphalt hump on Second Street where Catherine and Second intersect.

Moss assured Mason both problems would be corrected.

In other action Monday, the board:

*Forwarded to the Planning and Zoning Board a request from George H. Houser to rezone property on the east side of I-85 from Residential-20 to Light Industry.

*Forwarded to the Planning and Zoning Board a request from P.D. Crane to rezone property on the west side of Linwood Road from Residential-6 to Neighborhood Business.

*Approved refunding $41.33 to McCullagh Leasing for property taxes billed and paid in error.

*Approved an increase in fees for A.V. Smith Engineering Company, gas corrosion consultants.

*Approved December 24 and 27 as Christmas holidays and January 3 as New Year's holidays for city employees, and approved paying Christmas bonuses.
