BUMGARDNER

As your committee desires to utilize all resources and talent available, the decision has been made to increase the number of committee members serving to increase our effectiveness. We shall in the near future publish the names of all members so you may call a particular one for counsel if you so desire.

Rev. L.K. Fannin, pastor of Church of the Nazarene, has assumed the duties as Chairman of the committee. Rev. Fannin has served as a committee member since the formation in July. We are pleased to have him serve in this capacity and look forward to his leadership.

Please be advised to the handicap parking signs designating the spaces at various stores and locations. You must have a handicap placard issued by the N.C. DMV to legally park in one of these spaces. If you are handicapped or disabled and desire the forms a... If you are not handicapped or disabled please do not use these spaces, you will be liable for a citation from the police department. Worse yet is the uncaring shown for those less physically capable than you.

We are planning a yard sale to raise funds and requesting donations of items useful or saleable. They may be dropped off at the office or we will pick up if you call. Please help if you can. Date and location of sale will be announced later. We will accept anything from hairpins to five room houses!

Please contact us now if you desire to have you home listed as a handicapped/disabled location and plotted on both the fire dept./rescue squad maps with identifying decal placed on the home. These homes having those requiring assistance in evacuating the premises will also be plotted on the city disaster map.

Hypnosis Clinic Set

Your battle to quit smoking could be over on January 17. Start 1983 off right by attending the hypnosis clinic offered by the American Lung Association.

The hypnosis clinic to stop smoking will be held Monday, January 17 to 7:00 p.m., at Catawba Valley Technical College Auditorium on Highway 64-70 S.E., in Hickory.

Dr. Richard Lovelace of Winston-Salem will conduct the clinic. Dr. Lovelace is a bynotherapist with more than twenty years of experience.

Everyone who attends the two-hour clinic at a cost of $35 will receive written materials and a hypnosis audio-tape that can be used for continued benefit. Proceeds will be used to help support the American Lung Association's local programs.

Call the Lung Association office in Conover at 704-464-2413 for further information and registration.
