

Baptists May Attend Convention

A Baptist Association is making it possible for local Baptists to attend the Southern Baptist Convention in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. The trip will include a pre-convention visit to Williamsburg and the Foreign Mission Board in Virginia, and a post convention tour of the Penn-Dutch Country, featuring Lancaster and Gettysburg. The trip is being arranged by the Kings Mountain Baptist Association as a non-profit service.

Cost per person will be $489 for single occupancy, $353 double, $307 triple, and $284 quad. A deposit of $25 per person is required with check made payable to the Kings Mountain Baptist Association and designated "Convention Trip". Deadline for final payment is April 11. The cost includes transportation, lodging, scheduled tours and admissions, an Amish style feast in Lancaster, and trip insurance. Departure date is Saturday, June 11 and return date to Shelby is Sunday, June 19.

First Union's IRA Package Beats The Others, Hands Down.

Take A Closer Look Before April 15 To Benefit On Your 1982 Returns.

You probably know what an important part an IRA plays in planning for your retirement. But what about the benefit it can give you today? There's still time to open an IRA and deduct your contributions from your 1982 income tax returns. And that's why you'll want to take a closer look at what First Union has to offer.

You Can Open An IRA For Only $100.

With our 18-month variable-rate IRA, that's all it takes. You can contribute as little as $25 or as much as $2,000 in a single year and still get that all-important tax deduction. And regular contributions are not required.

We also offer $500-minimum 18-month and 36-month fixed-rate IRAs, in addition to other IRA investment options. And we'll help you choose the IRA which best suits your needs.

We Give You A Complete Retirement Package.

When you open an IRA at First Union, you get more than an account. You get a retirement package. You'll receive an attractive personal record-keeping portfolio, a quarterly financial newsletter, a financial planner, along with Social Security forms, and other important literature to help plan for your retirement.

We Even Have A Hot-Line To Answer All Your IRA Questions.

We've installed a toll-free IRA Hot-Line. Just call 1-800-532-6613, any time Monday through Friday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., for current rate information and any other details about your First Union Retirement Account. So call or stop by any First Union office today.

Remember, all IRAs are not alike. Once you take a closer look at the facts, you'll see we have the retirement package that beats the others, hands down.
