

Insurance Women Meet

The Gaston County Association of Insurance Women held their March meeting recently at the Western Steer Steak House in Gastonia.

Guest speaker was Terry Ratford, trust officer with Branch Banking and Trust, who spoke on estate planning.

Janet Drew and Audrey Thornton, employees of Whitesides Insurance Agency in Gastonia, joined the group.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Carolyn Carringer, an employee of Warlick and Hamrick Associates in Kings Mountain.

Members are taking a CPR course at the Red Cross building in Gastonia on April 7, 14, 21 and 28.

SOCIETY and CLUBS

DAR Holds March Meeting

The Colonel Frederick Hambright Chapter of the DAR met at the home of Mrs. Mike Neely for the March meeting. Hostess was Mrs. Vida Linder.

Upon arrival, members were served a sweet course, nuts and hot drink. Twelve members and one guest were present.

Mrs. Hilda Goforth presented Mrs. Paul McGinnis, who gave a program on lap quilting. Mrs. McGinnis gave a short history of quilts and showed pictures, books and patterns illustrating the beauty of quilts. She also had a display of quilts which she had made.

DAR Holds Convention

The State DAR convention was held at the Pinehurst Hotel and Country Club March 7-9.

Delegates from Colonel Frederick Hambright Chapter were Mrs. Eugene Roberts, Regent; Mrs. Hilda Goforth and Mrs. Mary McMackin. The chapter received several awards, including outstanding yearbook, National program committee; national certificate of award; and state tri color award.
