Youth Jobs Are Available

The Mayor's Summer Youth Jobs Program, entering its 15th year, will conduct interviews Friday from 1-5 p.m., Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon and Tuesday from 9-noon and 1-5 p.m. at the Governmental Services Facilities Center.

Ruby Alexander and Rev. M.L. Campbell are co-chairing the committee which will help high school and college students find summer jobs. Other members of the committee are Margaret McCarter, Mrs. Joel Marable, Nina Oliver, Jerry King and Mayor John Moss.

"This has been a very successful program, due to the outstanding cooperation of industries and businesses in our area," Mayor Moss said. "Many young people have been provided with jobs so they can continue their formal education and in some cases the jobs have allowed the young people to supplement much needed family income."

The program has filled 1,581 positions in the first 14 years.
