

Rehearsal Dinner, Picnic Honor Denise Collins And Alf Badgett

A rehearsal dinner for Denise Collins and Alf Badgett, who were married Sun., May 29 at First Baptist Church, was held Saturday evening at the Kings Mountain Country Club. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alfred Badgett of Asheville, parents of the groom.

The bride was wearing a fuchsia dress. A theme of pink and white was carried out in the decorations. The flowers on the tables were in baskets to which were tied pink ribbons with streamers. Pink candles, white table cloths and green napkins were used. Miss Collins was presented a corsage of pink rosebuds which was pinned at her shoulder. Scott Barber of Gastonia played the piano. There were relatives from all sides of both families, as well as in-town and out-of-town friends. At the head table were the bride and groom and their wedding party. There was another table for parents, grandparents and god parents, which included Mrs. Samuel David Collins; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Z. Hord of Cherryville, and Mrs. Roy C. Mitchell of Mt. Airy, who is the grandmother of the groom; and the groom's godparents, Van Barringer of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. E. Farrell White of Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Gwathmey Jr. of Vale, Colorado, and Judge and Mrs. Robert F. Chapman of Camden, South Carolina, held a picnic Sunday morning at the Kings Mountain State Park picnic grounds. Invited were the out-of-town guests for the wedding. The hosts are the aunts and uncles of the groom. Mrs. Chapman sent out invitations with orders for the "Troops to Muster." A picnic lunch of fried chicken, macaroni salad, cole slaw and potato chips was served.
