MRS. JAMES DARRELL VAN DYKE
(Kimberly Marcia Lawing)

Lawing-Van Dyke Couple Exchange Marriage Vows

Kimberly Marcia Lawing and James Darrell Van Dyke exchanged their marriage vows Saturday at Woodlawn Baptist Church in Lowell.

Rev. Dale Matheson officiated. William B. Lindsey, organist, Mrs. Kim Bentley, pianist, and Miss Sherry Waters and Steve Perkins, vocalists, presented a program of wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus E. Lawing of 305 Ridge Drive, Mt. Holly. She is a graduate of East Gaston High School and attended Gaston College. She is employed by Piedmont Processing Division of Ti-Caro Industries. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Sallie Lee and the late Lonnie Lee, and the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lawing.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Van Dyke of 818 Cleveland Avenue, Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of Kings Mountain High School and Gardner-Webb College with a B.S. degree in mathematics. He is employed by the Gaston County Board of Education as a teacher at East Gaston High School. He is the grandson of Mary Mode and the late Roy Mode, and the late Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Van Dyke.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose her sister, Mrs. Barbara McGee of Gastonia, as Matron of Honor. Tammy Browning of Mt. Holly was Maid of Honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Pam Baisden and Mrs. Teresa Ramsey, sisters of the groom from Kings Mountain, Mrs. Cathey Deal, sister of the bride, from Lowell, Pam Finchum, cousin of the bride of Alexis, and Revonda Staton, cousin of the bride, of Iron Station. Jennifer McGee and Alicia McGee, nieces of the bride, were flower girls and Kent Stowe was ring bearer.

The bride wore an exquisite candlelight wedding gown of imported schiffli lace which featured traditional styling with a natural waistline, high neck and lace yoke. The lace leg-omutun sleeves finished the elaborately beaded bodice. The A-line skirt and chapel train was edged with elegant schiffli lace.

The bridesmaids gowns were of coral chiffon over taffeta and featured a sweetheart neckline and Lady Di sleeves. Dyed to match imported schiffli lace enhanced the beauty of the neckline. The gowns were accented with satin ribbons at the waist and satin bows on the shoulders.
