Kings Mountain Police Report Larcenies

Kings Mountain police reported a number of larcenies and acts of vandalism during the past week.

Kings Mountain Hospital reported that someone hit a stop sign on its property.

The City of Kings Mountain reported that someone pushed over the cannon which is located at the corner of Railroad Avenue and Mountain Streets. There was $25 damage to the chain and poles which were around the cannon and $30 damage to the cannon.

Resurrection Lutheran Church reported that someone broke windows out of the church building at 912 Crescent Circle.

Phillips 66 Station at 600 East King Street reported that someone pumped $7 worth of gas and drove off.

A.B. Prince of 604 Landing Street reported the theft of a garden hose. Value was $20.

Clark Faucette Jr. reported the larceny of a stereo from his home at 704 Marion Street.

Certex, 18 Elm Street, reported that someone broke into the building and stole a cash box.

centers on offense.

Richard Ross, another former Mountaineer, has joined the staff as head jayvee coach. Bo Goforth, who played on the 1963 KM championship team, will work with the inside four on defense and the interior linemen on offense, and Richard Ellison will coach the offensive line and defensive ends and linebackers.

Next week, the Mounties will be involved in the annual Booster's Club football camp. The players and coaches will stay at the high school Monday through Friday, have twice a day practices and skull sessions.

The following week, they'll go back to once-a-day practice sessions.

moving of people around after this week," he said.

Hicks just recently completed his coaching staff, which is still one coach short and will have its work cut out. Hicks will work mainly with the running backs and perimeter people on defense. Charles Locke, the only other returnee from last year's staff, will coach the defensive secondary and quarterbacks and receivers on offense. Bruce Clark will coach the inside linebackers on defense and the tackles and ends on offense. Chuck Gordon, a former Mountaineer player, will work with the tackles on defense and the guards and
