

City To Enforce Sign Ordinance

The city of Kings Mountain will begin immediately enforcing its ordinances concerning the posting of political posters, advertisements and other signs on utility poles located inside the city limits.

Section 3-11, Page 199 of the City Code of Ordinances states:

"No person shall post any bills, posters, signs or advertisements on any telegraph, telephone, electric light or other pole along any of the streets of the city; provided, that this section shall not be construed to include street signs, placed on the said poles by the city for designating names of streets. Each sign, poster, bill or advertisement posted in violation of this section, shall constitute a separate offense."

State law reference for the above code is "Unlawful posting of advertisements, G.S. 14-145."

KM Rescuers To Give Away Pinto Runabout

Some lucky person will win a 1977 Ford Pinto Runabout through a special fund-raising project of the Kings Mountain Rescue Squad.

The car, which is a fully-equipped V-6 with air conditioning and AM-FM stereo, will be given away on September 17 during the final night of the Bethware Fair.

A one-dollar donation to the Rescue Squad will get you a chance on the car. The squad is in drastic need of funds and encourages all local citizens to buy a chance on the car. To obtain a ticket, see any member of the Rescue Squad.

in Business Administration (MBA) with a concentration in finance. He was honored as one of four graduates with a straight A (4.0) grade. Approximately 150 students participated in the exercises at McFarlin Auditorium at S.M.U. Former Congressman Jim Collins gave the address.

In the audience, his wife Cecilia and two-year-old son Eric were joined by his mother, Dorothy Patterson Etheridge of Kings Mountain, his foster brother, Donn Freeman and family of Raleigh, and his wife's parents and sister's families, and their preacher, Wil Biceley and his wife, all from Texas. A reception was held at the Etheridge home afterwards.

Etheridge expects to work in the finance area in the city of Dallas.

Graduates

CHARLOTTE, NC - A Kings Mountain resident graduated from Johnson C. Smith University, July 30.

Tamra Jean Jeffries, Box 228, received the bachelor's of science degree.

Steak Bridal Luncheon Honors Linda Wells

Linda Wells, bride-elect of Bryan White, was honored Saturday, August 13, with a bridal luncheon at Hanks Bar-H Steakhouse.

The hostesses were Mrs. Harold Wells, the bride-elect's paternal grandmother; Mrs. Eula Ledford, her paternal great-grandmother; Mrs. Dean Spears, her aunt; Mrs. Tim Spicer, her cousin, Miss Debbie Wells, her sister, and Mrs. Steve Wells, her aunt.

A pink and white color motif decorated the area. Wedding bells and candles accented the bridal theme. A beautiful item of decoration was a hem-stitched tablecloth made by the bride-elect's great-great grandmother, the late Mrs. Cora Hayes.

Guests were Mrs. James White, the groom-elect's mother; Mrs. Debbie McAbee, bridesmaid; Mrs. Clyde Cook, the groom-elect's maternal grandmother; Mrs. Randy McDaniel, organist; Mrs. Chris Barrett, the groom-elect's sister; and Mrs. Larry Wells, the bride-elect's mother.

The guests were greeted with punch and then were served lunch by the steakhouse staff. The hostesses presented the bride-to-be with a coffee maker as their gift.
