Thanks, Food Lion

TO the editor

On Wednesday, August 17th, the Kings Mountain Senior Center participated in a summer commodity foods distribution program sponsored by the Cleveland County Social Services. 1,690 pounds of cheese was distributed, along with 705 pounds of flour, 416 pounds of dry milk, and 254 pounds of rice.

A total of 192 households were served through the program.

The Senior Center staff would like to express their sincere thanks to Food Lion in Kings Mountain for their donation of paper bags for this distribution. This kind gesture made the program run much more smoothly.
