BEAT THE HEAT

Senior citizens who do not have air conditioned homes and who would like to seek refuge from the hot weather may do so by going to the Kings Mountain Depot. It is open each day from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. Senior citizens are welcome to watch TV or just relax and talk to other persons. Heat exhaustion has been claimed a major national disaster and the risk for persons over age 60 is 13 times greater than those under 60.

IT'S A BOY
