JOHN L. FULTON

John Lloyd Fulton, 72, formerly of Kings Mountain, died at 3:15 a.m. August 11 at Mercy Hospital, Rockville Centre, New York.

He graduated from the Kings Mountain public schools and studied mortuary science for two years. He later received training as a tailor, the profession he chose to follow.

While in Kings Mountain, he was a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church, where he taught Sunday School and instructed in the B.T.U.

He moved to Hempstead, N.Y., in 1930. He was a member of Union Baptist Church, where he was active in the Sunday School and served as a member of the Usher Board.

He practiced his trade of tailoring in Hempstead until he retired in 1975.

He was a charter member of the Elks New Home Lodge

Number 1123 of Hempstead, serving as the Exalted Ruler and Esteemed Leading Knight. At the time of his death he was a Trustee of the Lodge. He was a member of the Masons Doric Lodge 53 and was active in many other community organizations.

He is survived by his wife, the former Willie Mae Adams; one daughter, Patricia Fulton of Hempstead; his mother, Mrs. Maggie Fulton of Kings Mountain; two sisters, Mary Eliza Turner and Johnida White, both of Kings Mountain; an aunt, Mary Christwell of Kings Mountain; his God-children, Beverly and James Bethea, Daniel Bythewood, and O'Linda Ross; and many brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nieces and nephews.

GENEVA CROCKER

Dear Friends,

At time of bereavement the family should promptly notify all companies in which insurance is carried, to secure the proper claim forms. We can order copies of the death certificate which must accompany these forms. Even lapsed insurance policies should be examined for the possibility of extended coverage. All policies on the lives of the survivors should be reviewed to consider changes in beneficiary.

Respectfully,
Ollie Harris
