

BRENDA JEAN DOVE

(Bride-elect of Keith Banyon Fields)

ENGAGED - Miss Brenda Jean Dove of Kings Mountain, daughter of Juanita Palmer of Kings Mountain and Bently Dove of Martinsburg, West Virginia, has announced her engagement to Keith Banyon Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Fields of Rock Hill, S.C. The wedding will be held Sat. Nov. 12 at 1 p.m. at Boyce Memorial A.R.P. Church in Kings Mountain. A reception will follow in the church social hall. The bride will be given in marriage by her father.

Couple Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tate honored their son, Mike, and his bride-to-be, Susan Finney at an after-rehearsal dinner at the Holiday Inn West in Durham recently.

Miss Finney was presented a corsage of white daisies and babies breath and Mike wore a white daisy.

Guests included the wedding party, out of town guests, and members of the Tate and Mattera-Finney families. The couple was honored by a toast by his father and other guests and friends.

Tables were covered with white cloths with green napkins and centerpieces of pewter hurricane candle lamps surrounded with green ivy and yellow and white mums.

A highlight of the room was a round table covered with a white cloth, centered with a three-tiered chocolate groom cake.

Family and friends of the couple enjoyed a hospitality room at the Holiday Inn-West.

Refreshments were provided throughout the weekend by Mrs. Mary Helen Tate and Mrs. Phyllis Carpenter and other friends of the Tate family.

The guests enjoyed refreshments from the buffet table and the champagne fountain.

The tables were overlaid with white cloth with crystal candle holders accented with mauve and white mums. Palms and potted mums were used throughout the hall.

The three-tiered white wedding cake was decorated with pink roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Twelve live pink throat orchids accented the tiers.

The bride is a graduate of Elon College, where she earned a B.A. in business administration. Prior to her marriage she was employed by Dow Spaulding, attorney at law.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Elon College and Duke University and holds degrees in radiologic science. He is employed by E.R. Squibb and Sons.

The newlyweds will live in Cincinnati.
