

KM Netters Open With Three Victories

Kings Mountain High's girls tennis team is off to a fast start, having won three decisions over non-conference opposition. Coach Ed Guy's ladies defeated East Lincoln 6-3, West Mecklenburg 9-0, and Ashbrook 5-4. They host Ashbrook Thursday, Hunter Huss Monday and Newton-Conover Tuesday. "East Lincoln and Ashbrook both have very good teams, and both of those matches could have gone either way. We feel real good about being 3-0 at this point," Coach Guy said.

Beatty Reunion Scheduled

The annual Beatty-Beattie-Baity reunion will be held September 18 at the Rock Springs Campground in Denver.

A picnic lunch will be held at 1 p.m., followed by the clan gathering under the arbor for recognition of guests and discussion of the family history.

All Beattys and friends are invited to attend.

The reunion has been held at the Rock Springs Campground for 30 or more years, and many years before at the Methodist Church in Lucia, N.C.

Most of the early Beatty settlers in the Piedmont section of North Carolina trace their ancestry to either John, William or Francis Beatty. They settled in this region about the 1740's.

Revival To Begin

New Bynum Chapel A.M.E. Zion Church, located at the intersection of Canler and Ellis Street, will start revival services Sunday, September 18.

Homecoming service speaker will be Rev. Walter Adams of Vestibule A.M.E. Zion Church, Kings Mountain, at 2:00 p.m., Rev. Brocker of Galilee Baptist Church, York, S.C. will be the speaker at 7:00 p.m., and the evangelist for the week is Dr. B.S. Laner of St. Peter's A.M.E. Zion Church, Gastonia.

Everyone is invited.

KMers Going To Holland

Kings Mountain and Gastonia citizens will leave Friday for a week stay in Holland as ambassadors for the Friendship Force.

Holland citizens were in Kings Mountain and Gastonia several months ago for their visit to the United States.

Mayor John Henry Moss is sending J. Rutten, Burgomaster of Asten, some gifts as a friendship token from the city of Kings Mountain.

The mayor is sending Rutten the book "The Battle of Kings Mountain 1780, With Fire and Sword" by Wilma Dykeman. It is an account of the Battle of Kings Mountain, turning point of the Revolutionary War.

Mayor Moss is also sending Rutten a pistol which is an authentic copy of the type used in the Battle of Kings Mountain.

College Day Set

The Post Secondary Opportunity Session is planned by the North Carolina organization of admissions officers - CACRAO. The purpose of the session is to give students an opportunity at the individual school to talk with representatives from various colleges in North Carolina and some in South Carolina, along with technical institutes and ROTC programs. Approximately 75-80 schools will be represented.

Students - juniors and seniors - are permitted to attend the session at each school. They can talk to the representative and get materials needed in their process of college applications.

The four high schools in the county have programs scheduled for Thursday, September 15. The times for each as follows:

8:30-9:45 a.m. - Burns Senior High School.

10:15-11:30 a.m. - Crest Senior High School.

1:15-2:45 p.m. - Kings Mountain Senior High School.

7:00-8:00 p.m. - Shelby Senior High School.

Parents are also invited to attend these programs. The counselors at each school are making plans for the sessions.
