

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Melanie Ramey

A Lingerie Shower was given in honor of Miss Melanie Ramey on August 27 by Miss Debra White at her home in Charlotte. The bride-to-be was presented a corsage of white roses, pom-poms and gypsophelia. The dining room table was beautifully decorated with red and white flowers and champagne punch. A delicious luncheon was served to the twelve guests.

Mrs. Bill Honeycutt honored Miss Ramey on September 10 with a drop-in at her home on Cavalier Drive in Greensboro. Upon her arrival Melanie was given a corsage of white canations. Many friends and relatives of the Gordon family called between the hours of 3-5 to greet the honoree. Out-of-town guests were the mother of the bride-to-be, Mrs. Burris Ramey, Miss Faye Ramey of Kings Mountain, Mrs. Robert Gordon of Dunwoody, Ga., the mother of the groom-to-be.

A cocktail party honoring Melanie and Bob was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McIntyre Saturday, September 17. Entertaining with the McIntyres were Mr. and Mrs. Carl DeVane and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hamrick. The house was beautifully decorated with yellow and white mums and ferns. The guests served themselves from a lovely appointed dining room table. Special guests were the parents of the prospective bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Burris Ramey and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gordon. Goodbyes were said to the host couples.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Gordon on Friday evening, September 30 immediately following the rehearsal at Myers Park Country Club. A cocktail hour was held preceding the dinner. Apricot tablecloths, napkins and candles were used with an arrangement of mixed flowers for the centerpiece. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shealy and Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Taylor of Durham, Miss Beth Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Gordon and Mrs. Ralph Gordon of Greensboro.

The bridesmaids' brunch was given by the bride's sister, Sheila Yokeley and Mrs. James E. Yokeley at 10:00 October 1, the wedding day, at McAllister's in Charlotte. Melanie was presented a beautiful corsage of shasta daisies when she arrived. The bride-to-be took this occasion to present gifts to her attendants. Special guests were Mrs. Burris E. Ramey, Mrs. Robert Co. Gordon, Mrs. Frank M. Shealy and Mrs. Ralph Gordon, grandmothers of the bridal couple, and Mrs. R.E. Boggan Jr., who directed the wedding.

WOULDN'T A DOG BRING YOUR FAMILY CLOSER?

A dog like Pluto, mascot of the Disney Channel. He'd like to introduce your family to a whole new kind of pay-TV from Jones Intercable. It's the Disney Channel, television that will get all of you having fun together.

With family-participation shows like "Contraption," a game that lets you second-guess the on-screen contestants and make moves on your own game board. Or "You and Me, Kid," full of laughs and active play for you and your pre-schooler. Your kids will love singing along with Winnie the Pooh and his life-sized puppet friends, too. And joining Mickey every morning on his "Mousercise" exercise show.

Exciting entertainment that gets everyone thinking and sharing.

The family will find the Disney Channel full of ideas that inspire lively talk. For instance, in "Dreamfinders" a wizard and his band of kids have thrilling adventures in the Realm of Imagination. On "Wish Upon a Star" your kids' fondest dreams turn into reality as they become firemen or astronauts for a day. Maybe next week your child will be the lucky one!

Order your family pass to over 50 years of legendary Disney films.

Besides all the new shows created especially for the Disney Channel, you'll enjoy reliving Disney greats like Mary Poppins, Dumbo, Treasure Island, and much more. Plus Disney's award-winning nature shows that open the wonder of the world around us for you and your children to share.

On the Disney Channel, there's really something for everyone. All of it, lively, playful entertainment that will keep your family amazed and involved 16 hours a day with no commercial interruptions. And never an "R" rating, either.

Give your family the famous mutt you grew up with.

Give them Pluto, and the Disney Channel. Give them lovable cartoons, fascinating science shows, Zorro, Davy Crockett, and The Magic Kingdom. Television that brings your family closer in warmth and sharing. Call Jones Intercable now for the Disney Channel.
