BEGINNERS INTERESTED IN SMALL COMPUTER USES

INTRODUCTION TO SMALL COMPUTERS
SACRED HEART COLLEGE COMPUTER LAB

Sacred Heart College offers a variety of courses to introduce you to the many uses of a small computer. These courses are introductory and require no previous experience or knowledge of computers.

These courses are taught in the Computer Lab at Sacred Heart College. Enrollment is limited to the actual number of IBM Personal Computers in the lab, so all participants get their own computer.

All participants get plenty of time to actually use a computer and a friendly instructor to guide them along. The courses are very reasonably priced and may offer the best computer educational value available.

MS Drive
Is Set For October 15

Mrs. Frances R. Caveny National Multiple Sclerosis Society Chairman for Grover, announced that the annual MS appeal will start October 15. Volunteers will be knocking on doors, to pick up donations to help fight MS, thecrippler of young adults.

"All of the volunteers will be carrying an official MS marcher kit," said Mrs. Caveny, "and they will be asking for your support." The volunteers helping are Martha Byers, Rebecca Callahan, Betty Gardner, Karen Moss, Vickie Smith and Judy White.

"We are all going to do our part to help wipe out MS," Mrs. Caveny went on. "I hope everyone in town will give generously to conquer this mysteriouscrippler."
