Media Works On Display

Exhibits to be featured in Cleveland Technical College's galler during November and December include a photography show and an exhibit of mixed media works by continuing education students.

Color and black/white photographs by Elwin Stilwell, Tech's photography instructor, will hang in the lower gallery. Works by students of Linda Putnam, continuing education instructor, will be exhibited in the upper gallery.

Both shows will be on public display November 1 through December 15. Gallery Hours are 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday thru Thursday and 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., Friday. For information call 484-4000.

Grace Kelly was the first movie actress to appear on a postage stamp. She and Prince Rainier of Monaco, her husband, were featured on one in 1956 in commemoration of their marriage.

Sacred Heart Bazaar Slated

November 12 has been set as the date for the annual Sisters of Mercy bazaar at Sacred Heart College in Belmont. Hours are from 10:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m. The Sacred Heart bazaar is held for the benefit of the building fund and to supplement the many charitable works of the Sisters of Mercy.

The dinner served from 4:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. in the college dining room offers a choice of meats (ham, chicken and beef), vegetables, rice and potatoes along with hors d'oeuvres and a choice of desserts. Coffee, tea, milk and soft drinks are available as well as snacks all day. The cost of the Smorgasboard dinner will be $5.00 for adults and $2.50 for children.

Bazaar attractions include mercicraft, linen booth, hosiery, cosmetics, handmade gifts and clothing, toys and dolls, sundries and Christmas decorations and cards, a white elephant booth and many other attractions. Door prize will be a check for $500.00.

One of the best features of the bazaar is that no matter in what way you may have been associated with Sacred Heart through the years or in the present you will meet many of your friends here because it is indeed a homecoming day. Everyone is invited to attend the bazaar.
