

Dinners, Showers Honor Annette And Billy

Annette Hinson and Billy McCarter, who will be married December 3, were honored at a cookout Saturday night, October 15, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John C. McGill.

Sharing in host duties with the McGills were Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford.

Guests dress in western attire, arrived to a yard decorated with bales of hay and pumpkins.

Upon arrival, Dr. McGill served the guests roasted peanuts.

Hamburgers and the trimmings were served on the porch from tables covered with red checked cloths and decorated with wrought iron hurricane candles.

Music was furnished by John Yarbrough.

During the evening the host couples presented their gifts to the bridal couple.

Guests included friends and parents of the couple, Mr. and Mrs. David Hinson and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCarter. Also Mrs. William K. Ervin of Anderson, South Carolina, aunt of the prospective groom.

DINNER PARTY

Annette Hinson and Billy McCarter, who will be married Dec. 3, were honored at a dinner party Saturday evening, October 22, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bryant.

Sharing in host duties with the Bryants were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shawver, Mr. and Mrs. James David and Mr. and Mrs. John Barrington.

Miss Henson was presented a corsage of yellow garza mums and white daisies. Yellow mums and daisies were used throughout the house.

Guests were seated at small tables covered with white linen cloths edged with white lace and centered with an arrangement of mums, daisies, and greenery.

A delicious three course dinner was served after which champagne toasts were made to the bridal couple.

Host couples chose this time to present gifts of china to the honored couple.

Among the twenty guests were the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hinson and the prospective bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCarter.

Open Gate Club Hears Mrs. Gamble

The Open Gate Garden Club met November 9 at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Eugene McCarter.

Members were served delicious refreshments as they arrived.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gamble had charge of the program. She presented Mrs. Lena McGill who read a beautiful short Thanksgiving story before going into her subject, "Basics in Flower Arranging." In her unique way, she demonstrated the art of making lovely flower arrangements, showing mechanics and materials, types of colors of flowers, containers and modern trends. While Mrs. McGill's remarks were entertaining and spontaneous, they were very practical and helpful.

The arrangement, "Polly Put the Kettle On", was made by the hostess.

Mrs. James Dickey, president, presided over the business session. The meeting was closed with the Club Collect.

Bennett and Mrs. Ray Herndon.

A Strawberry theme was carried out with a basket of silk flowers and strawberries on the refreshment table. Strawberry punch, crystallized strawberries, chesses wafers, nuts and cake squares were served between the hours of four and six.

Among the guests were the bride elect's mother, Mrs. David Hinson of Shelby; her grandmothers, Mrs. Jeanette Hinson of Troutman and Mrs. Annie Plylers of Shelby; her aunt, Mrs. Homer Hinson of Troutman; and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Eugene McCarter of Kings Mountain.

LUNCHEON

Miss Sharon Annette Hinson, who will marry Billy McCarter on December 3, was honored at a luncheon Saturday, November 12 at Cleveland Country Club in Shelby.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. Jimmy Tucker, Mrs. James Kirkland, and Mrs. John Raynor of Shelby.

Upon arrival the guests were served orange appetizers.

Guests were seated at a beautifully appointed table centered with an arrangement of pink and red roses.

The hostesses presented Miss Hinson with a corsage of pink rose buds and a brass tray.

Special guests were the bride-elect; her mother, Mrs. David Hinson, of Shelby and the prospective groom's mother, Mrs. Eugene McCarter of Kings Mountain.

DINNER PARTY

Annette Hinson and Billy McCarter, who will be married

December 3, were honored at a buffet dinner Saturday evening, November 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Gladden.

Yellow mums and daisies were used throughout the house. A centerpiece of yellow mums with green candles decorated the buffet table.

Miss Hinson was presented a corsage of white garza mums and babies breath.

The guests served themselves from a lovely appointed dining room table. Then they were seated at a small table in the den. The centerpiece on each table was a miniature arrangement of yellow and white daisies.

Following a delicious dinner, the sixteen guests presented Christmas ornaments to the honored couple for their first Christmas.

The host couple presented them with a gift of china in their chosen pattern.

Special guest were the parents of the prospective bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. David Hinson and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCarter. Also Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hinson, of Troutman, uncle and aunt of the bride-elect.
