Ladies Honor Pastor's Wife

The ladies of the Kings Mountain Church of God, 111 E. Parker Street, honored Phyllis Looney with a week she will never forget. February 13-19 was designated as "PWA" (Pastor's Wife Appreciation Week).

On Monday a large green plant was delivered to her door; Tuesday a beautifully decorated basket was sent to her; Thursday a large decorated box filled with gifts from the ladies was left for her; Friday reservations were made at a nice restaurant for Rev. & Mrs. Kenneth R. Looney for supper and a flower and card were brought to the table; Saturday a corsage of red carnations was delivered to her home; Sunday ended the week with the bulletin board in the church decorated with a poem and red and white hearts with "Pastor's Wife Appreciation Week, We Love You" on it. The flowers in the sanctuary were in her honor and a love gift of money was given to her also.

BONNIE S. BRIDGES

Accepts New Position In Gastonia

Bonnie Stroup Bridges has assumed her new position of office manager for Region Toyota, Inc. of Gastonia at 420 West Franklin Avenue, Gastonia.

She was formerly employed by Kings Mountain Home Federal Savings and Loan Association where she worked ten years prior to becoming manager of the Bessemer City Branch for five years.

Mrs. Bridges is a charter member of the Bessemer City

Chamber of Commerce which she served as treasurer for five years.

She and her husband Dennis and children, Rhonda and Ladd, reside on Route 3, Kings Mountain.

Rhonda, a Bessemer City High School graduate, is a sophomore at Appalachian State University. Ladd is an 8th grader at Bessemer City Junior High School.

Airman Caldwell Assigned To Keesler Air Base

Airman Kenneth G. Caldwell, son of Kenneth H. Caldwell and stepson of Hazel C. Caldwell of 120 S. Inman Ave., Bessemer City, N.C., has been assigned to Keesler Air Force Base, Miss., after completing Air Force basic training.

KENNETH ANTHONY

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

In addition, airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward an associate degree in applied science through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the administration field.

He is a 1981 graduate of Bessemer High School, Bessemer City.

Byars Member Of "Pine"

Air Force Capt. Queenie A. Byars, daughter of Cleveland and Ruby Mackey of 420 Belvedere Circle, Kings Mountain, N.C., has participated in Ahuas Tara (Big Pine) II, an exercise involving U.S. and Latin American forces in Honduras.

According to Pentagon officials, the exercise tested plans and procedures for operations, command and control of joint operations with the armed forces of nations in the Caribbean basin and Central America. The exercise also demonstrated the deployment and sustainment capability of U.S. forces to unfamiliar terrain.

Big Pine II is the latest in a series of combined exercises that began in 1965.

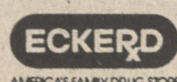

Byars is deputy chief of public affairs with the 31st Tactical Training Wing at Homestead Air Force Base, Fla.

She is a 1977 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Her husband, Air Force Capt. Napoleon B. Byars, is the son of Doris H. Byars of 9503 Wingsong Drive, Charlotte, N.C.
