Tultex Promotes Hunnicutt

Harold Richard (Dick) Hunnicutt, Jr., 45, son of Mrs. Margaret Neisler Hunnicutt of Kings Mountain and the late Harold R. Hunnicutt, Sr., has been named president of Tultex Corporation and chief operating officer of the holding company in Martinsville, Va.

A native of Kings Mountain, Hunnicutt co-founded King Mill, Inc. in Kings Mountain in 1967. Before that he had been with Parkdale Mills, Inc. of Gastonia for five years. He joined Tultex in 1973 when Kings Mill merged into Tultex. After the merger he was named president of Tultex Yarns, which operated six mills in North Carolina.

In 1977 he was named vice president of the corporation and in 1981 he was elected to the board of directors and named senior vice president.

Hunnicutt earned a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Belmont Abbey College and graduated Magna Cum Laude with a B.S. degree in textile technology from N.C. State University. He also is affiliated with several textile and yarn spinning professional associations.

Hunnicutt and his wife, the former Esther Reid Adams, have three sons and live in Gastonia. Hunnicutt is now commuting to Martinsville but will eventually be moving to Virginia.

Tultex Corp. is a Martinsville-based holding company that operates apparel, fabric and yarn businesses in Virginia and North Carolina and a factoring subsidiary in New York City.
