Earns Superior Rating

The Community School's Mighty Mountaineer Colorguard received a superior rating in their first competition Saturday, April 7th, at Hunter

Huss High School in Gastonia. The competition was part of a series presented by the Carolina All American 'Music In Motion' competitions. A superior rating qualified the group for state competition in May at Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The colorguard is open to students in grades 6-9. The group meets on Saturdays at East Elementary School beginning at 2 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. Any interested students may obtain further information by calling 739-2296 or 739-3906.

The guard is available for PTO, PTA and other community or civic functions by calling the above numbers. The group is under the direction of Antwone Camp.

HOT DOG SUPPER

Piedmont Baptist Church will sponsor a hot dog supper Saturday morning from 10 a.m. until at the church fellowship hall on Benfield Road. All proceeds are earmarked for the athletic fund.

Church Of God To Honor Minister

Rev. Kenneth R. Looney, Sr., pastor of Kings Mountain Church of God at 111 E. Parker Street, will be honored this Sunday by his congregation a day designated as "Pastor Appreciation Day."

Looney is married to the former Phyllis Bumgarner and the father of four sons, Michael Looney of Winston Salem, Ray Looney of Roswell, Ga., Phillip Looney of Pontiac, Michigan and David Looney of Cleveland, Tn.

Rev. Mr. Looney has served two years and 10 months as pastor of Kings Mountain Church of God and is active in community affairs. He is currently serving as chairman of the Kings Mountain Cemetery Committee.

REV. KENNETH LOONEY

The special service begins at 11 a.m. and the public is invited to attend.

Tryouts Scheduled

Tryouts for the Kings Mountain Little Theatre's musical production of "The Fantasticks" will be held at the Parkgrace Auditorium Friday at 7:30 p.m., Saturday at 3 p.m. and Sunday at 3 p.m.

All candidates are encouraged to bring music for these auditions.

The Kings Mountain Little Theatre is funded in part by a Grassroots Grant from the North Carolina Arts Council.
