Visit Your Post Office On Wheels

Area residents may conduct postal business outdoors this spring, Postmaster Fred Weaver of Kings Mountain Post Office said today.

"Our rural delivery vehicles function as post offices-on-wheels," explained Weaver. "As rural customers catch 'spring fever,' we'll be there to serve them."

Rural carrier services include stamp and money order sales, parcel pickup, and acceptance of registered and Express Mail. Business transactions are completed on-the-spot, at delivery stops along each route.

"These 'open-air post offices' are a world apart from their city counterparts," said Weaver, "yet they bring a wide range of postal services right to your door."

"Rural delivery developed a personal touch in its early days bringing families food, newspaper, tobacco, dry goods, and items that were otherwise difficult to get.

Today for some older residents who live in secluded areas, rural carriers serve as a lifeline to the outside world, bringing food to shut-ins during emergencies or alerting the telephone company when a storm interrupts service."

Likewise, on a clear spring day, the rural carrier's post office-on-wheels makes sure some of that personal touch remains, the postmaster said.

Sufficient Postage Required

The Internal Revenue Service has notified the United States Postal Service that they will strictly comply with income tax regulations requiring prepayment of sufficient postage on federal income tax returns and, consequently, will not pay postage due charges for short-paid tax returns.

Therefore, postmasters at the office of mailing have been instructed to return to sender for additional postage all unpaid and shortpaid mail addressed to the Internal Revenue Service.

Taxpayers are cautioned to be sure their returns bear sufficient postage.

Gilbert To Head Campaign

North Carolina candidate for Governor Lauch Faircloth announced today that Ralph L. Gilbert of Fallston is his Cleveland County campaign co-chairman.

Faircloth said, "I'm pleased that Ralph is directing our campaign. His combination of public service, business and farming experience will be a big help to our campaign."

Gilbert was a member of the Board of Elections for 25 years. He is owner of Ralph Gilbert Real Estate Agency and a farmer.

He is married to the former Beth McSwain from Shelby. They have two children.

Gilbert said he was supporting Faircloth because of his "outstanding record in state government, including the recruitment of industries and jobs to Cleveland County. Also, he will make the strongest candidate for the Democratic Party this fall."

Faircloth is the former N.C. Secretary of Commerce. He also has been a member and chairman of the Highway Commission. He is a small business owner and farmer from Clinton.
