KM Students In Contest

Students from Kings Mountain High School were among 170 students participating in the third annual Region VI Homemakers of America Proficiency Events Thursday at Garinger High School in Charlotte. Wendy Keykendall's "Everyone is a Homemaker" was eighth in the Public Speaking event. Debra Williams won a third place trophy for her Child Development display. Neesie Taylor won a second place trophy for her salad preparation demonstration. Winning first place for their chapter scrapbook were Joyce McKinney, Pam Blanton and Debbie Scruggs, and bringing home a first place trophy for her FHA/HERO chapter display was Norma Davis. The first place winners will represent Region VI in the state Proficiency Event May 11 in Raleigh.

Juniors and sophomores voted April 12 for Student Participation Organization officers. Elected were Richie Gold, president; Kevin Sabucco, vice president; and Rodrick Boyce, secretary-treasurer.

Monday through Wednesday of this week, a fund-raising drive was held for the American Cancer Society. Kings Mountain High School is the only school in the state which helps raise money for the cancer society. In the last two years, KMHS has contributed around $1,600 per year.

Kathy Goforth's Business Law class went to the Cleveland County courthouse Tuesday to observe a court case. It was a worthwhile field trip.

During this week, elections for class officers were held. Winners will be announced next week.
