Talent Winners Selected

Dancers took the first place trophies in the annual Kings Mountain Kiwanis Club Talent Show for grades 8-12 Thursday night at B.N. Barnes Auditorium.

Scott Campbell, Todd Fain, Kenneth Potter and Jamie York did a break dance to "Rock It" to win the junior high division. Heather Bradshaw sang "Almost Over You" to take second place.

Other participants in the junior high division were Jill Bowden, who sang "Why Do Fools Fall in Love"; H.C. Bell, who danced to "Billy Jean"; Tina Hollifield, who sang "We Shall Behold Him" and Mike Curry, who sang "One In A Million."

Targe Wofford, Tony Lewis, Shane Shockley, Dennoris Wilson and Darris Watkins did a break dance to "Radio Activity" to win the high school division. Patrick Hamrick took second place with the piano selection "Piano Prelude."

Others in the high school division were David Dings, who played "My Tribute" on the piano; Sandy Wells, who sang "One More Song For You"; Gary Feaster, who sang "Let The Music Play"; Lisa Vaughn, who sang "Going Up Yonder" and Laura Wright, who sang "Because of Who I Am."

Special entertainment was presented by Holly Dellinger, Angel Allen, the West School Cloggers and Tonya Hawkins.

Jonas Bridges, manager of Radio Station WKMT, was master of ceremonies.

MUSICAL DRAMA

The musical drama "Then Came Sunday" will be presented at Eastside Baptist church in Blacksburg April 21 and April 22 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to attend.
