PICKOFF - Kings Mountain's Kelly Stewart hustles back to first base to avoid being picked off in Tuesday's Southwestern 3-A Conference baseball game with North Gaston at Lancaster Field. North Gaston won 4-3. The Mountaineers travel to Shelby Friday and host Crest Tuesday.

Seven Errors Costly In Loss To North

Errors continued to prove disastrous for Kings Mountain High's baseball team Tuesday as North Gaston's Wildcats took advantage of seven Mountaineer miscues to score a 4-3 Southwestern 3-A Conference victory at Lancaster Field.

The loss left the Mountaineers 3-6 in the Eastern Division. They travel to Shelby Friday night and return home Tuesday afternoon to host Crest.

Tommy Batchler went the route Tuesday and gave up only three hits, but the seven errors along with six bases on balls proved fatal.

The Mountaineers collected six hits off a pair of North Gaston hurlers, with Kelly Stewart leading the way with a single and double. Rodney Ballew, Brad Reynolds, Jarvis

Young and Neal Morris added singles.

North Gaston, aided by a dropped fly ball, grabbed a 1-0 lead in the top of the first.

Kings Mountain, also aided by a dropped fly ball, came back with two runs in the bottom of the first to grab a 2-1 lead. Ballew singled and Stewart doubled. Ballew scored when Brad Reynolds' fly ball behind the pitcher's mound was dropped and Stewart scored on a sacrifice fly by Young.

The Mountaineers added their final run in the third when Stewart singled, moved to second on a single by Reynolds and scored on a single by Young.
