Does your pharmacist discuss with you the correct way to take medications? Will he or she take the time to talk to you about non-prescription purchases?
You should seriously consider the answers to these two questions to determine if you have chosen a pharmacy that is sincerely interested in your health needs.
Trade at a pharmacy where you're known by name, where you can be sure to receive highest quality at reasonable prices all the time, and where your prescription wait will be short and pleasant. We're truly interested in your good health.

BROWN LUNG

What is it? A lung problem.
Who gets it? Cotton textile workers.
Do they have rights? Yes.

Cotton dust causes brown lung. Symptoms are shortness of breath, a cough and a tight chest. Cotton textile workers can get free examinations by doctors experienced in diagnosing brown lung.

Even workers who retired or became disabled years ago may file claims.
