

West Students Present 'Wedding Of Flowers'

Photos By Gary Stewart

Kindergarten and first and second grade students at West School presented the operetta "Wedding of the Flowers" at Monday night's meeting of the Parent-Teacher Organization.

Shirley Austin, elementary schools music teacher, was musical director, Mrs. Ellen Elam was pianist, Nan Jean Grant was in charge of makeup and Jan Welborn and Dru White did the special art work.

The operetta was presented in honor of West second grade teacher Dorcas White, who is retiring this year after 37 years as a school teacher. She directed her class's presentation of the same operetta in 1944, her first year as a teacher.

Teacher sponsors were Mrs. White, Jodi McDaniel, Julia Plonk, Suzie Roberts and Janet Suber. Teacher aides assisting the classroom teachers were Carolyn Harris, Frances Yarborough, Jane Crawford, Marilyn Rhyne and Sarah Adams.

Heralds were Allison Kiser and Jody Putnam. Members of the wedding party were Nikki Owensby, Maid of Honor; Stewart Marlowe, Best Man; Sloan Goforth, Ring Bearer; Elizabeth Dilling, Flower Girl; Jamey Smith, Jack-In-The-Pulpit; John Sizemore, Johnny; and Gray Wooten, Lily.

Jada Brown and Daniel Marlowe sang "I Love You Truly."

Other members of the kindergarten, first and second grades were members of the choirs. Mrs. White's second graders were roses, Mrs. McDaniel's second graders were violets, some members of all second grades were sunflowers, Mrs. Plonk's first graders were white and yellow daisies, Mrs. Suber's kindergarten students were forget-me-gots, Mrs. Plonk's first graders were bluebells, and Miss Roberts' first graders were dandelions and colored tulips. Heather Ellis was the Rainbow Fairy.

BRIDE - Gray Wooten played Lily - the bride - in Monday night's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School.

SINGERS - Herald Allison Kiser and Bluebell Cindy Taylor stand by as Daniel Marlowe and Jada Brown (left to right) sing "I Love You Truly" during last Monday's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School.

RAINBOW FAIRY - Heather Ellis danced as the Rainbow Fairy in last Monday night's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School.

AN ARRAY OF FLOWERS - Appearing as flowers in West School's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at last Monday's PTO meeting were, front row, left to right, Wendy Carroll, Elizabeth Lutz, Kim Ledford, Siamphone Phanthalack, Sharon White and Jessica McElroy. Back row, Samuel Mayhew, Thong Chanthapaeng, Jeff Taylor, Ted Anderson, Michael Bell and Chuck Kaylor.

TULIPS - First graders appearing as tulips (bridesmaids) in Monday's "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School are pictured above. Left to right, Sarah Beth Tignor, Melody Ellison, Rachel Boheler, Windy Bagwell, Erika Randall and Wendy Wright.

GRASSY GREENS - Members of Miss Suzie Roberts' and Mrs. Julia Plonk's first grades play musical instruments during last Monday's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School. All kindergarten, first and second grade students appeared in the play.

DANDELIONS - First graders appearing as dandelions (broomsmen) in last Monday's presentation of "Wedding of the Flowers" at West School are pictured above. Left to right, Brian LeFevers, Buddy Huckabee, Brent Herndon, Gin Sabucco, Jeffrey Cook and Brett Thompson.