4-Hers To Meet

Dixon Community 4-H Club will meet Friday night at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frances Green, leader. Mrs. Green will distribute 10 by 15 mini gardens to members. Seed for the garden has been donated by Ted Ledford of Kings Mountain Farm Center. Florence Brooks, 4-H Extension Agent for Cleveland County, will give the program, "Nutrition For Living." All interested young people are invited to attend.

Homecoming Is Sunday

Piedmont Baptist Church will observe Homecoming Day Sunday, May 6. Rev. James Green, former pastor, will be the speaker at the 11 o'clock morning worship hour. Picnic dinner will be served at the noon hour and a gospel song service will be held afterwards with the Anchoorman Quartet as featured group. The Rev. Tim Spencer is pastor and invites the community to attend.

National Photo Week will be observed the week of May 7-14 in the Center Court at Eastridge Mall in Gastonia and the Schiele Museum Camera Club will sponsor the observance. A photo exhibit of members photos will be on exhibit and the public is invited to visit and register for free prizes to be presented. A representative of the Camera Club will also be on hand to talk with visitors about photography and becoming a member of the Camera club.

Open House Is Scheduled

All Seventh and Eighth graders and their parents are invited to attend Open House Thursday night, May 8th, at Kings Mountain Junior High School. Before touring the school and meeting the teachers, information will be given on the curriculum and registration procedures. Parents of present Eighth grade students interested in earning a scholar's diploma upon graduation are strongly urged to attend.

Clean-Up Week Slated

Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up Week is underway this week in Kings Mountain and all citizens are encouraged to call the Public Works Department, 739-8136, or the Mayor's Office, 739-2563 if you have old appliances or big items requiring help in discarding. Mayor John Henry Moss said calls for assistance can be placed up to 5 p.m. this Friday and debris and other items will be picked up and discarded. "Let's make this the best effort ever in cleaning up our city," said the Mayor.
