4-H Workshop Slated

The 1984 4-H Marine Environment Workshop has been scheduled August 5-10 to give teenagers an opportunity to learn about marine resources, ecological marine problems and marine-related careers.

The summer workshop will be held at the Bogue Banks Marine Resources Center with lodging and other activities at Mitchell 4-H Camp, Swansboro.

Margo Green ECU Graduate

Margo Anita Green, daughter of Mrs. Francis Green of Route 4, Kings Mountain, received her M.A. Degree in Psychology during commencement exercises at East Carolina University on May 5.

Court of Appeals Judge S. Gerald Arnold was the commencement speaker. Degrees were conferred on 2,360 students.

Interested teenagers, ages 14-18, are eligible to attend according to Florence M. Brooks, Extension Agent, 4-H. Those who have attended previous marine environment workshops are not eligible.

The workshop program includes marsh habitat studies, ocean beach investigations, oceanographic activities, snorkeling, boat trips, laboratory experiences and aquarium studies.

The workshop is sponsored by the North Carolina Resources Center, the N.C. Sea Grant Program and the 4-H organization, although attendance is not limited to 4-H members.

The cost for the workshop, including meals, lodging, insurance, equipment fees and field trips, is $125.00. Participants must arrange their own transportation, but names and addresses of other applicants are furnished if carpoolers are needed.

Applications can be obtained by calling or writing to 4-H Extension Office, 130 South Post Road, Shelby, North Carolina 28150-6297 or 482-4365. The deadline for applications is June 28, 1984.
