KM Students Complete Western ROTC Program

Two students from Cleveland County who completed Western Carolina University's ROTC program have been commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army.

Joey Steven Wyte and Pamela Darlene Bolton Bonnell, both of Kings Mountain, were among 24 cadets commissioned May 13 following commencement exercises at Western.

Wyte, a 1982 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, was a Dean's List student in fall, 1983. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wyte of Blalock Drive, Kings Mountain.

Mrs. Bonnell, a 1980 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High School, graduated from Western with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. A Dean's List student for five semesters, Mrs. Bonnell was a member of Alpha Phi Sigma criminal justice honor society and president of the Criminal Justice Club. During the commissioning ceremony, Mrs. Bonnell was pinned with the same gold bars that her husband, 2nd Lt. Charles Bonnell, was pinned with at his commissioning last year.

Mrs. Bonnell is the daughter of Linda R. Morrow of Route 2, Kings Mountain and Jimmie E. Bolton. She is the daughter-in-law of retired Major and Mrs. William G. Bonnell of Belmont.
