LOOKING BACK

From the June 4, 1953 edition of The Kings Mountain Herald. Sixty-two Kings Mountain High School seniors received their diplomas in commencement exercises at Central School auditorium Monday night.

The city board of commissioners has set the tentative tax rate at $1.30 per $100 valuation.

Franklin L. Ware, Jr., well known Kings Mountain citizens, has been appointed manager of the Kings Mountain branch office of the Employment Security Commission.

Five Kings Mountain girls will be among the 72 who will be presented to society at the Debutante Ball in Shelby Saturday night. They are: Cornelia Ware, who will be escorted by Jim Kimmell and Ollie Harris, Jr.; Joan Caveny, who will be escorted by Harold Glass and Jimmy Caveny; Shirley Falls, who will be escorted by Darrell Austin and Sonny McDaniel; Shirley Houser, who will be escorted by Ben Hudson and Charles Mauney; and Marlene Spake, who will be escorted by Gene Bryant and Bill Ruth.
