

Shriners To Sponsor Championship Rodeo

Championship Rodeo is coming to Kings Mountain June 15-16-17 under sponsorship of the White Plains Shrine Club for benefit of the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children and Burn Center.

Three performances by rodeo champions representing high schools from both North Carolina and South Carolina are slated at 8 p.m. on June 15 and June 16 and Sunday afternoon, June 17, at 2:30 p.m. Advanced tickets are on sale by Shriners at $3 for adults, $2 for students. Tickets at the door will be $4 and $3.

Carl Champion and Tommy Tindall, co-chairmen of the big event, say the club is pleased to bring the championship finals of the Carolinas High School Rodeo to Kings Mountain and are pleased that the Shriners could make a bid and win as the host city for the growing recognized competitive sport in high schools in the two Carolinas. Winners will receive trophies and cash prizes and the top winners go on to South Dakota for national competition in late summer with all expenses paid.

Jonas Bridges, publicity chairman for the rodeo, said that all normal rodeo events will be featured. These students are professionals and have already won the right to participate in the finals here. "These are top performers and will be performing on stock coming from professional rodeo contractors. The rules are the same as apply for the professional rodeos over the country and many of the rough stock riders are already competing in professional rodeos," he said.

For the men, there will be bareback, saddle bronc, bull riding, calf roping, and team roping as well as steer wrestling. For the ladies, there will be competition in barrel racing, pole bending, and would you believe, goat tying competitions?

Among area high schools who will send students into the rodeo finals here are:

Burns High School student Greg Buchanan will ride a bull, Clayton Porter will participate in calf and team roping, Paul Wilson will exhibit bareback riding and Tammy Wilson will compete in barrel racing and goat tying.

Crest High student Matthew Anthony, who won the calf roping contest last year, will compete again this year.

Cherryville's Ronnie Dyer will compete in the bull riding event and Gaffney High School's Tonda Hamrick will compete in barrel racing, pole bending and goat tying events.
