MR. AND MRS. CARL GOFORTH
...Celebrate Golden Wedding Day

Goforths Are Honored On 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goforth celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, July 1, at a surprise anniversary celebration planned by their daughter and son-in-law, Ginger and Bob Whisnant, of Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Family and close friends attended a cookout at the Goforth home and took the occasion to present the couple with gifts.

The celebration was moved up from November, so that the New Mexico Whisnants could be present for the get-together. The Whisnants enlisted the aid of other family members to surprise the Kings Mountain Goforths. While the hosts decorated the Goforth home, Mr. and Mrs. Ben T. Goforth accompanied Carl and Myrtle Goforth to Gaffney, S.C. to visit a sister, Bertie Jones.

Upon returning to their residence in Crescent Hill, Carl and Myrtle Goforth found the house full of guests and a decorated refreshment table with a beautifully-decorated wedding cake baked as a gift by Carl's sister-in-law, Bleeka (Mrs. Ralph) Goforth of Grover. The gold and white two-tiered cake was topped with the numeral 50 and was cut and served for dessert after the guests enjoyed hamburgers with all the trimmings. Gold and white summer flowers decorated the house.

The golden wedding celebration also included the celebration of Carl Goforth's birthday.

Dean and Arlene Goforth of Greenville, S.C., son and daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Goforth, assisted in receiving guests. Bertie Jones of Gaffney, S.C., Ben and Juanita Goforth of Kings Mountain and Ralph and Bleeka Goforth of Grover, sister and brothers of Carl Goforth, also assisted in receiving guests. Mrs. Jones is a member of the Goforth's original wedding party. She accompanied Carl Goforth and Myrtle Misenheimer to Gaffney, S.C. for their wedding 50 years ago.

Mr. Goforth, who had been associated with Margrace Mills for many years, is manager of the Kings Mountain Federal Credit Union. The Goforths have seven grandchildren: Ginny Whisnant, Diane Early, Becky Reynolds, Leann Goforth, Bill Goforth, Mark Rosamond and Kim Rosamond and two great-grandchildren, Graham Reynolds and Justin Goforth.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whisnant and daughter, Ginny, of Albuquerque, New Mexico; Frank and Reola Wilson of Spartanburg, S.C.; Bertie Jones of Gaffney, S.C.; Roger and Willa Jean Jones of Gaffney, S.C.; Edith and Greely Misenheimer, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Carl Goforth; and Ralph and Bleeka Goforth of Grover.

Dinner Honors Couple

Miss Lisa Hampton and Chuck Austin were honored Friday evening at a rehearsal dinner at Cattletown Steak House. Entertaining together were Mr. and Mrs. Gene Austin, parents of the bridegroom-elect, and Mrs. W.G. Walker of Gastonia, grandmother of the bridegroom-elect.

Miss Hampton and Mr. Austin were married Saturday afternoon in Kings Mountain Baptist Church.

A roast beef dinner with all the trimmings was served from festive dining tables in the private dining room which were decorated with white linen cloths and napkins, yellow and white flowers and candles. A groom's cake was cut and served for dessert.

The bride-elect was presented a white daisy corsage to wear with her party dress.

Guests were members of the two families and wedding party.

Groomsmen were Mike Shepard of Gastonia, Norman McKee and Jimmy Dockery, both of McAdenville, Bobby Miller of Dallas, Eddie Bridges of Kings Mountain, uncle of the bride, and Dwayne Burks of Hickory.

Judy Holder and Robin Isenhour presided at the bride's register.

The bride's mother chose a green street-length dress and a corsage of white roses.

The bridegroom's mother chose a peach street length dress and a corsage of white roses.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a beautifully appointed reception in the church fellowship hall which carried out the wedding colors of lavender and white.

Three refreshment tables were overlaid with lace over sheer and decorated in lavender and white with silver appointments. The bride's table held a four-tiered wedding cake enhanced by two cakes at either side and a ladder meeting the center cake. Punch and cake were served with mints, nuts, sweet and sour meatballs and finger sandwiches.

Assisting in serving refreshments were Mrs. Juanita Swindell, Mrs. Eddie Bridges, Mrs. Kathy Morris and Mrs. Doris Terry, aunts of the bride.

Kim Collins and Rebecca Hensley distributed ricebags.

After a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, the newlyweds will be at home in Kings Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby G. Bridges of Kings Mountain are parents of the bride. A 1979 graduate of Hunter Huss High School in Gastonia, she was a member of the Concert Choir and a bus driver. She is also a 1983 graduate of Bob Jones University where she was a member of Theta Mu Theta Society. She is presently employed by Poffie Girl Bridal and Formals in Gastonia.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Phyllis H. Land of Dallas and the late James Frank Land, Sr. He is a graduate of Broad River Christian Academy and a 1980 graduate of Gaston College. He is presently employed by Temple Christian School and Matthews Belk in Gastonia.

The bridegroom's mother hosted a rehearsal dinner Friday evening at Gospel Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Members of the two families and wedding party attended.

TIPS TO HELP YOU

Want to serve corn at your cookout? Select tender, young sweet corn. Here's how to prepare it before cooking: Take off the large outer husks and remove the silk. Then spread corn with soft butter. Pull husks back over corn; tie with fine wire.

Patio parties can have more pizzazz with the help of a Chef's Oven® from Dazey®. Its exclusive dual range thermostat allows use as fry pan or oven, delivering full 18-quart capacity with 57 percent less bulk. It can roast turkey, ham or beef, make barbecue, chili, fish stew or corn-on-the-cob for 20, fry enough chicken for a whole team and serve as a patio cooker or a roaster.

Here's a quick and easy recipe for basting spareribs and beef: 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce, 1 envelope (7/10 ounce) onion salad dressing mix, 1/4 cup vinegar, 1/4 cup light molasses, 2 tablespoons salad oil, 1 teaspoon dry mustard. Now combine all ingredients in small saucepan. Heat 3 minutes, stirring constantly. Baste meat during last half of cooking period. Makes 2 cups.
