

Assault Charge Lodged

Kings Mountain police have charged Chris Short, 701 Landing Street, with assault with a deadly weapon inflicting bodily injury following an incident at 2:50 a.m. July 10.

Keith Guin of 532 Baker Street reported the assault.

Guin was arrested on July 14. Other incidents reported by the police during the past week included:

Jamie Phillips, 1308 Dockery Drive, Shelby, reported that the interior of his car caught on fire while it was parked at the Davidson Pool. Damage was estimated at $125.

B&M Services of 212 North Mountain Street, Cherryville, reported that its rental building on Slater Street was broken into. A large amount of cotton was stolen.

Ronnie Philbeck of 313 Parish Drive, reported that someone broke into his residence and stole $35 and a pack of cigarettes.

Claudette Sisk of 607 Cansler Street reported the theft of a bicycle valued at $125.

Nancy Rhyne of 503 Woodland Drive reported that someone stole the hubcaps off her car while it was parked outside her home.

Robert Van Antwerp of 1814 Landing Street reported the theft of a CB radio and $1.75 in change from his vehicle. Total value of the stolen items was $46.75.

Jeans And Things, 112 West King Street, reported a breaking, entering and larceny. No value of the stolen items was given.

Eva Keller of 207 Park Drive reported a breaking and entering at her residence.

J.T. Jackson, 601 Princeton

Drive, reported the theft of hubcaps.

WRECKS

Two automobile accidents were reported by police during the past week.

Cars driven by Julius Coleman of 2090 Midpines and James Whitesides of Route 7, Lincolnton, collided Wednesday at 11:47 a.m. on West Mountain Street. Damages were estimated at $600 to Whitesides' 1982 Dodge and $300 to Coleman's 1970 Oldsmobile.

Cars operated by Deborah Hullender of 603 Landing Street and Wilbur Kuykendall of Route 2 collided Friday at 9:16 a.m. on East Mountain Street. Damage to Kuykendall's 1974 Dodge was $200 and damage to Hullender's 1972 Mercury was $500.

OPEN HOUSE - Rainey Haigler, center, receptionist at Scissor-Smith Salon on West Mountain Street, pours punch for some of the many visitors who attended open house at the beauty salon Sunday. Scissor-Smith is the first business to complete its new building in the Downtown Urban Renewal project.

Open House Is Held

Twelve area residents won prizes during Sunday's Open House from 4 to 6 p.m. at Scissor-Smith Salon on West Mountain Street.

The Salon is the first business to complete its new building in the downtown Urban Renewal project.

Winners include Kevin Moore of Grover, Richard Oliver of

Kings Mountain, Stephen Greene of Kings Mountain, Paul Morrow of Kings Mountain, Madge Arrowood of Kings Mountain, Sara Simpson of Kings Mountain, Mary Boyce McGill of Kings Mountain, Julie Harris of Kings Mountain, Robin Moffitt of Bessemer City, Eunice Lochridge of Kings Mountain, Jean Martin of Kings Mountain and Thelma Oliver of Kings Mountain.

The prizes, which included free visits to the salon's tanning booth, complete facials, manicures, t-shirts, shampoos, cuts and styles, were given by Mrs. Arlene Smith, owner of Scissor-Smith, and her employees, Eric Wright, Benita Moffitt and Lynn Walters.

Church To Show Film

A special showing of the new World Wide Pictures release, Jesus Is-Victor, is scheduled for Sun., July 29 at Kings Mountain Baptist Church, 101 West Mountain Street, Kings Mountain. The showing, which is open to the public and free of charge, will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary.

Jesus Is Victor is a personal and intimate portrait of Corrie ten Boom, a Dutch Christian who, until she was silenced by a stroke in 1978 at the age of 86, traveled the globe telling of her experience in Nazi-occupied Holland during World War II. She and her family were responsible for saving the lives of hundreds of Jews through their work with the "underground."

Miss ten Boon's experiences have been related in a number of best-selling books, as well as through World Wide's award-winning theatrical release, The Hiding Place.

In 1816, a volcano in Indonesia led to red and brown snow falling on the U.S. and Italy.
