Jackson, Stines Repeat In KMCC Member-Guest

Stoney Jackson and Tommy Stines blistered the Kings Mountain Country Club course Saturday and Sunday to successfully defend their Member-Guest golf championship.

Jackson and Stines fired a 14-under-par 130 to win by 11 shots over Mitch Howze and Gerald Putnam, who shot 141.

Jackson and Stines turned in a five-under-par 67 in Saturday's opening round to take a four-shot lead over Howze and Putnam. Then, on Sunday, the champions fired a nine-under-par 63 to win easily.

In addition to winning the championship for the second straight year, Jackson edged Lanny Thornburg by two inches to win the long driving contest.

Mike Dixon and Terry Abercrombie won the championship B flight with a 74-69-143. Darrell Austin, Sr. and Ken Nantz won second place in a playoff over John Howze and Ware Schiefer after both teams shot 148.

Mike Ballard and Charlie Ballard shot a 77-73-150 to win first flight honors. Jerry Ross and Jerry Jenkins were second at 152 and Charles Neisler and Larry McSpadden finished third with a 154.

All three finishers in the second flight were decided on playoffs after three teams tied with 156s. Jim Lybrand and Charles Wilson took first place, Phil Russ and Danny Tothorow were second and Margaret Williams and Bob Stout third.

John Howe and James Huey won third flight honors with a 161, followed by Buford Spicer and Gene Stone at 163 and Mike Crawford and Dawn Moose at 167.

Paul Hendricks and Bucky Cozart took fourth flight honors with a 169. George Bowen and Carl Champion were second at 174 and Mike Neely and Danny Dilling were third with a 182.

Concord Race Slated

CONCORD, N.C. - A strong field of drivers is expected at Concord Speedway this weekend when the 4-mile dirt track will host a Miller Time 300 qualifying race Saturday night.

The speedway will host its regular weekly racing program

Friday night, with action on tap in the late model sportsman, semi modified, hobby and super stock divisions.

All four classes will be in action again Saturday, with a 60-lap, Miller Time 300 qualifying main event for the late models headlining the night of racing action. The winner of that race will pick up $1,500, as well as becoming eligible for a $200 bonus if he qualifies for and starts the lucrative Miller Time
